RIDGEWOOD HIGH SCHOOL
NEW PORT RICHEY, FLORIDA

RIDGEWOOD
HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Ridgewood Students:

It is with great pleasure and pride that I address you through our yearbook, "The Rampage". Our school has gone through many changes since its inception, changes that have always moved us upward toward high ideals and goals. During our junior high years, we proudly observed Ridgewood students achieve many successes, and saw them excel in all areas in which our school was involved. We have watched our student body develop into well-rounded, mature, young adults, with exciting plans for the future.

Along with our student body, our school has gone through a maturing process as we moved upward. We have seen Ridgewood cross the gap from a junior high into a high school. Our plant has seen great changes with the addition of a complete football stadium, a new and beautiful gymnasium complete with the stage facilities, a new student parking lot, new physical education locker rooms, and a new weightroom. Our academic programs have been expanded to meet the needs of the high school curriculum.

Our desire is that Ridgewood will be an institute of learning that will enable our youth of today to be ready to accept the challenge of being our leaders of tomorrow. When this dream materializes, our work at Ridgewood will have been successful.

The future is always near; I challenge you to use your future to the fullest, always striving to move upward in your search for success.

Good luck and best wishes.
Sincerely,

Wendell L. Krinn

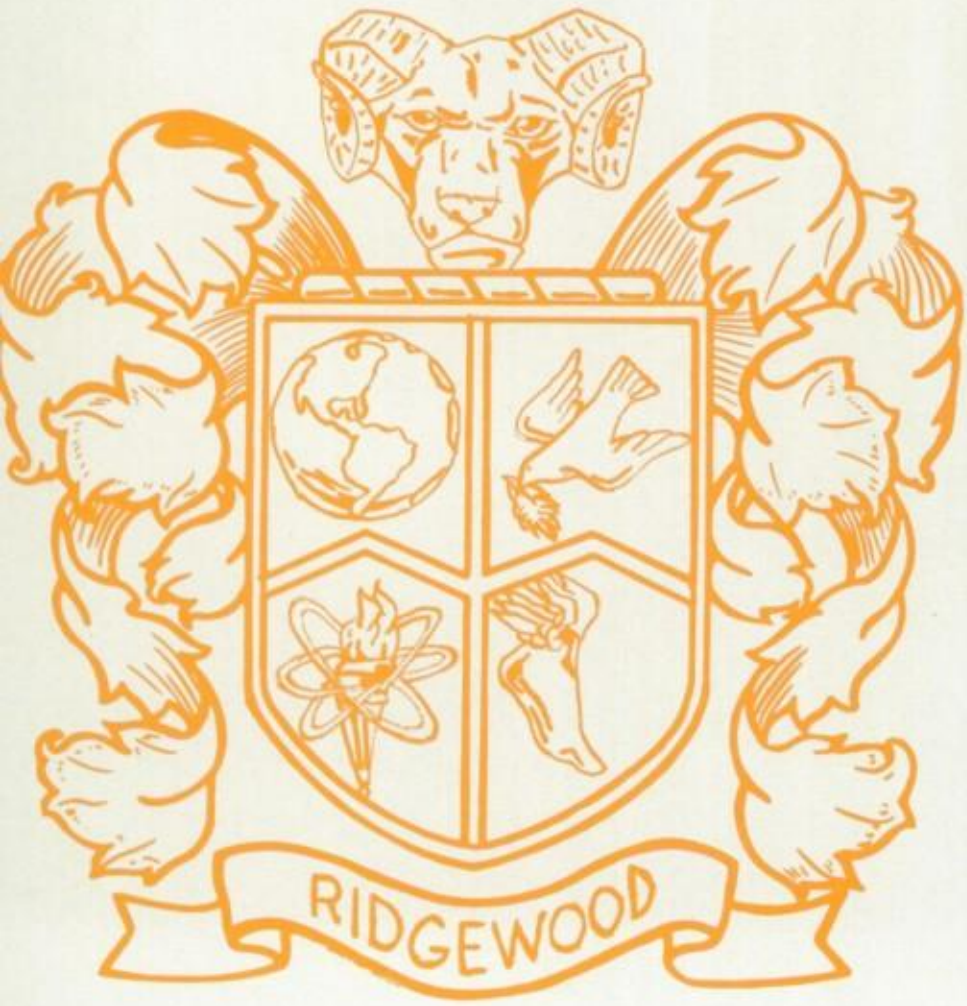
MOVING ON UP

The 1983-84 school year started out with the new Ridgewood High School sign pointing the way to our finest year yet. This marked a new beginning for all of us. We all have noticed a great deal of changes in the past year — how could we avoid them? The construction was the most obvious change, rather, improvement. The stadium was the most prominent addition, and we look forward to the full use of it next year. Along with the stadium came the construction of a weight room, an outdoor classroom, new locker rooms, tennis courts, a student parking lot, and a spectacular gymnasium and stage.

Becoming a high school takes a lot of time, energy, and money. Upon completion Ridgewood will have cost an estimated 1.6 million dollars. All these improvements add a lot of status to our school, along with a lot of responsibility. Each day we come closer to the reality of becoming Pasco county's "Showcase School."

Along with the expansion of the Ridgewood complex, many additions happened inside the classrooms. Quite a few classes, such as Typing and Drivers Education, were started. Also, with the addition of the seventh period, students were given the opportunity to take a variety of after school courses from Environmental Science to Microcomputers. Along with the classes came the teachers. There are almost one-hundred faculty members at Ridgewood, and probably more to come. Not only were there changes in the classrooms, but also in the extracurricular activities as well. In the athletic department came the addition of the wrestling and cross-country teams. Also, to allow for competition at both a junior and senior high school level, extra teams were added. For the first time we have eighth grade and junior varsity football and volleyball teams plus four basketball and track teams. In the clubs and organizations area, we added a school newspaper, brought back our magazine, and started new divisions of the marching band.

In years to come, those at Ridgewood in 1984 will be remembered as the first students of Ridgewood High School. We are and will be the sparks that start the flame. We will be making the records that the future students will continually attempt to break. We are also the tradition-setters that will start the traditions that will stay with Ridgewood forever. As awkward as it may be at times, we have to be the initiators for projects that will soon become a part of Ridgewood's history. Right now we have no examples to follow, because we are the examples that future students will follow. We must learn by ways of trial and error, getting better at all we do by growing. As all of us advance toward the big day of graduation, we become closer together, almost as if we were one big family. We are a small part of a change taking place in every corner of society; and now, more than ever, we are moving on up.



STUDENT LIFE

In the student life section we hope to give everyone a chance to look back on both the good and not so good times we've shared during this school year. We have pictured our construction to help us remember the conversion from a junior high to a senior high and how much effort was put forth. We also took pictures of the daily routine of any typical Ridgewood student such as classroom activities, going home, football games and various other after hours activities. We even found one of our students with a strange alien friend! So enjoy the section, classmates, this one's for you!

ORGANIZATIONS

Becoming a high school has brought on many changes, and some of the changes were made here in the clubs section. Along with renewing our Literary Magazine, we added a Rifle Corps. Special thanks should be given to the many people associated with the organizations, especially the sponsors. If it were not for their time and effort we as students would not be able to put our skills to the test.

For the first time the Ridgewood Ram Marching Band performed in competition, and solo ensembles, thanks to our new band director, "Mr. D.". Fine showmanship was achieved by all of four clubs.

The Rampage Staff began this school year with a terrific start. We won third place in a theme contest at the annual yearbook seminar at Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida.

Along with increasing the number of pages, we have increased the size of the book. We also added two new sections: the Literary Corner and Special Events. We hope this yearbook will be the best ever!

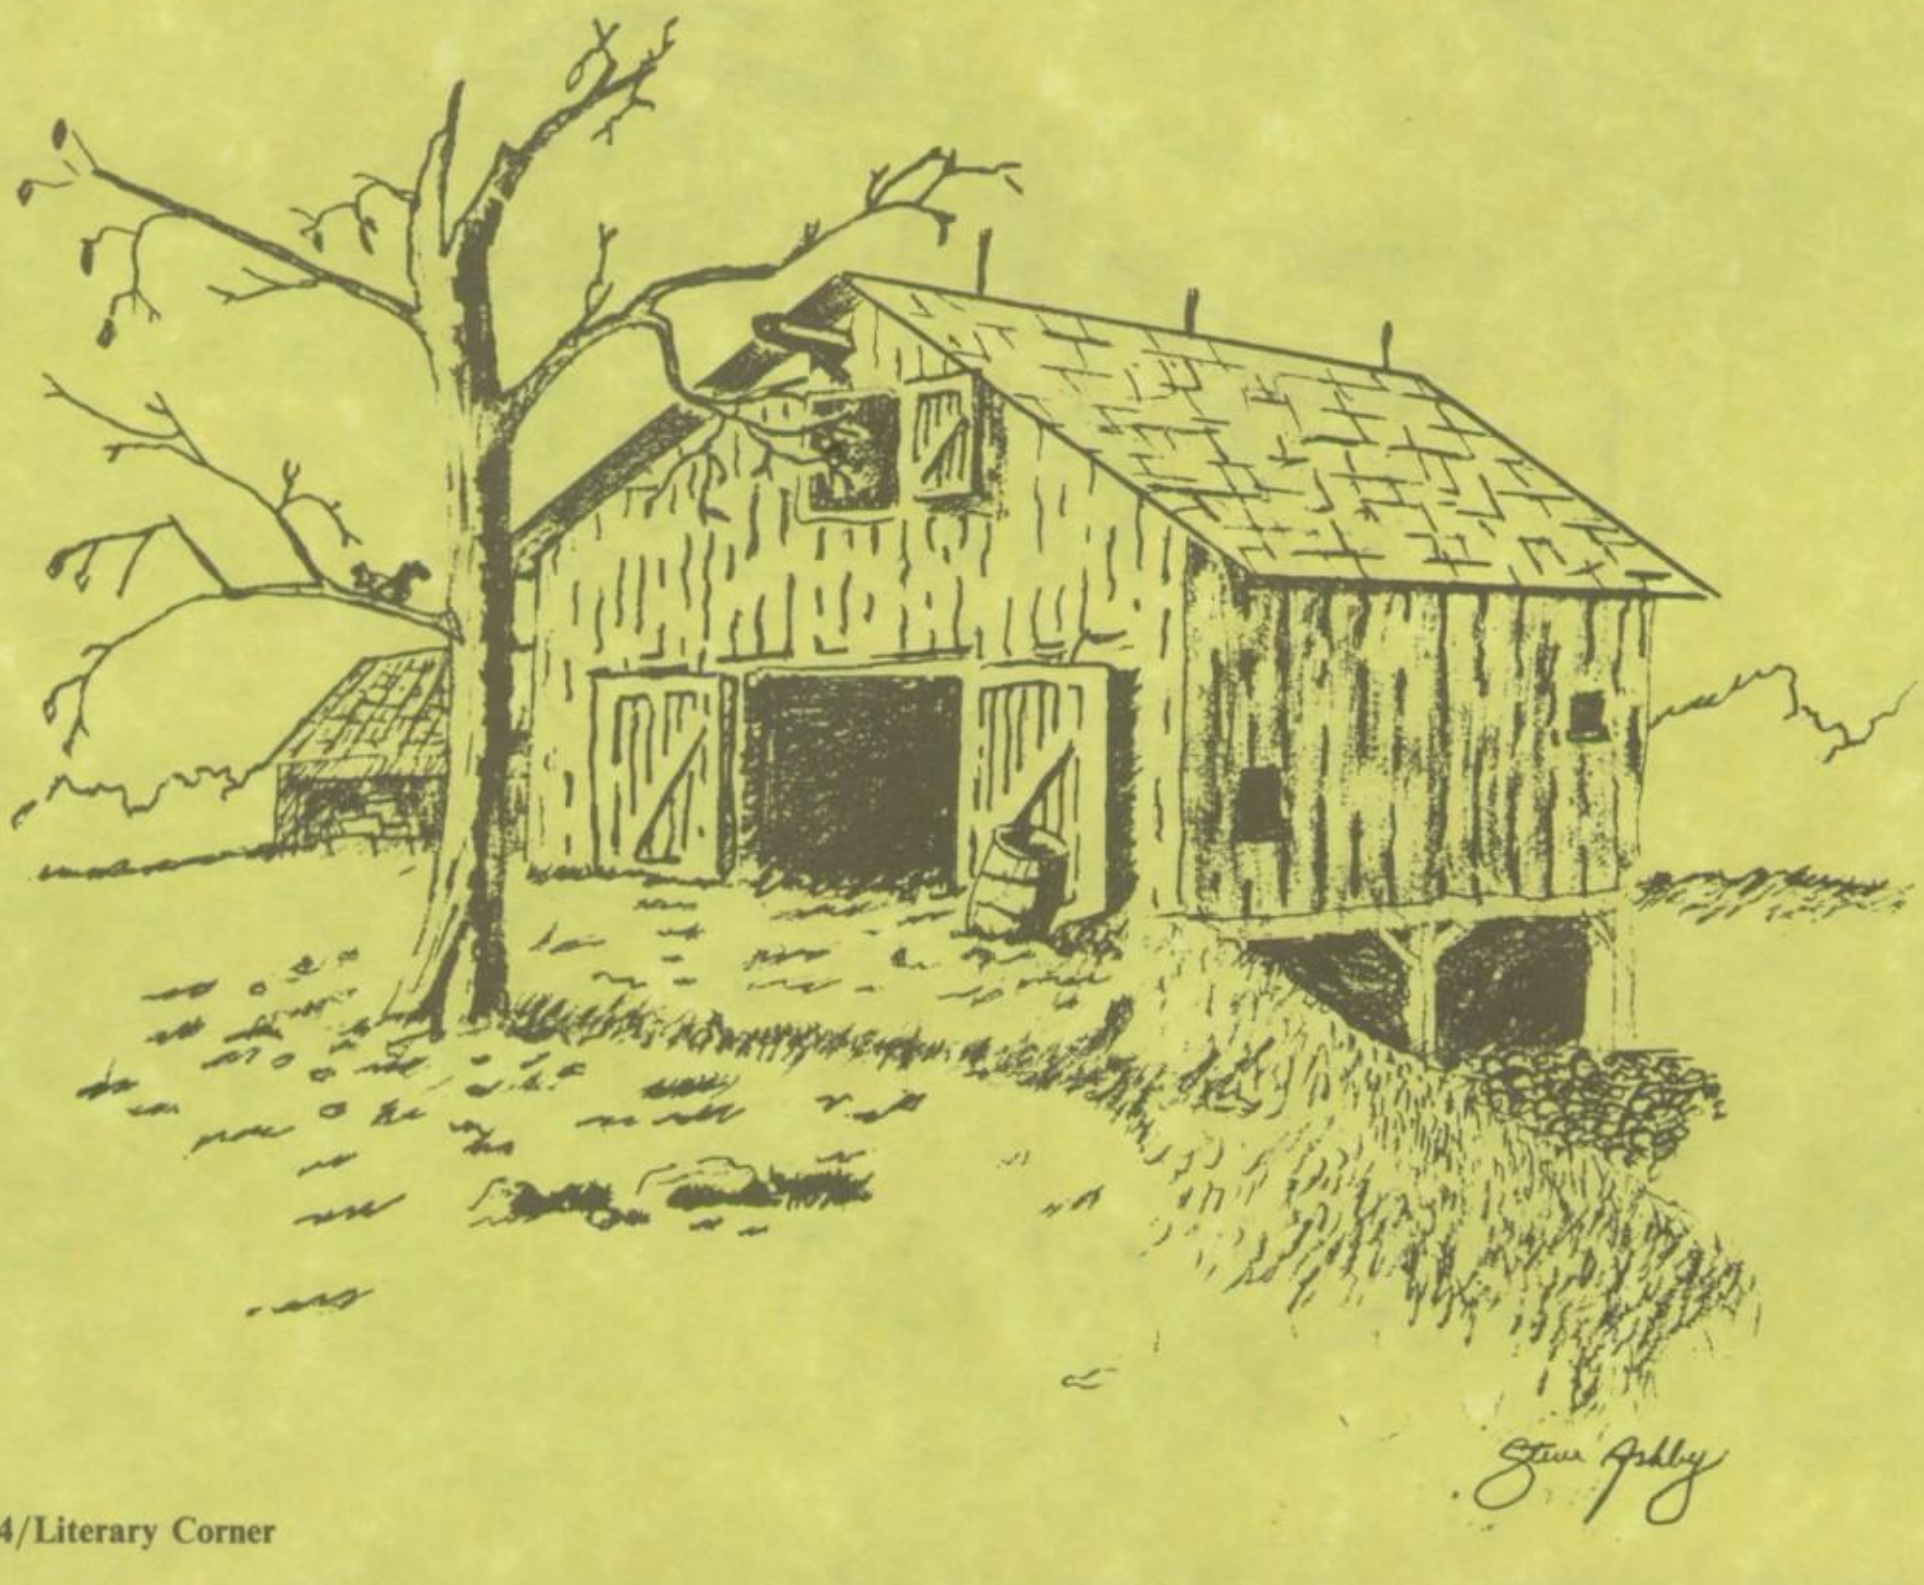
"SECRET SPOTS"

Do you have a place?
A place you can go to hide?
A place of peace and quite,
A place with lots of love inside.
I had such a place
In the middle of a field.
It held my deepest secrets,
Secrets that it never did reveal.
This place of sweetness,
It loved me in a way.
Loved me so much
It made me want to stay.
My own field was free and proud,
Then some mean men took it away.
The field was sold for houses;
So the beauty's gone today.
I seem to stand and watch
As those men sell it for lots.
I can cry and no one knows it
'Cause they've sold my secret spots.

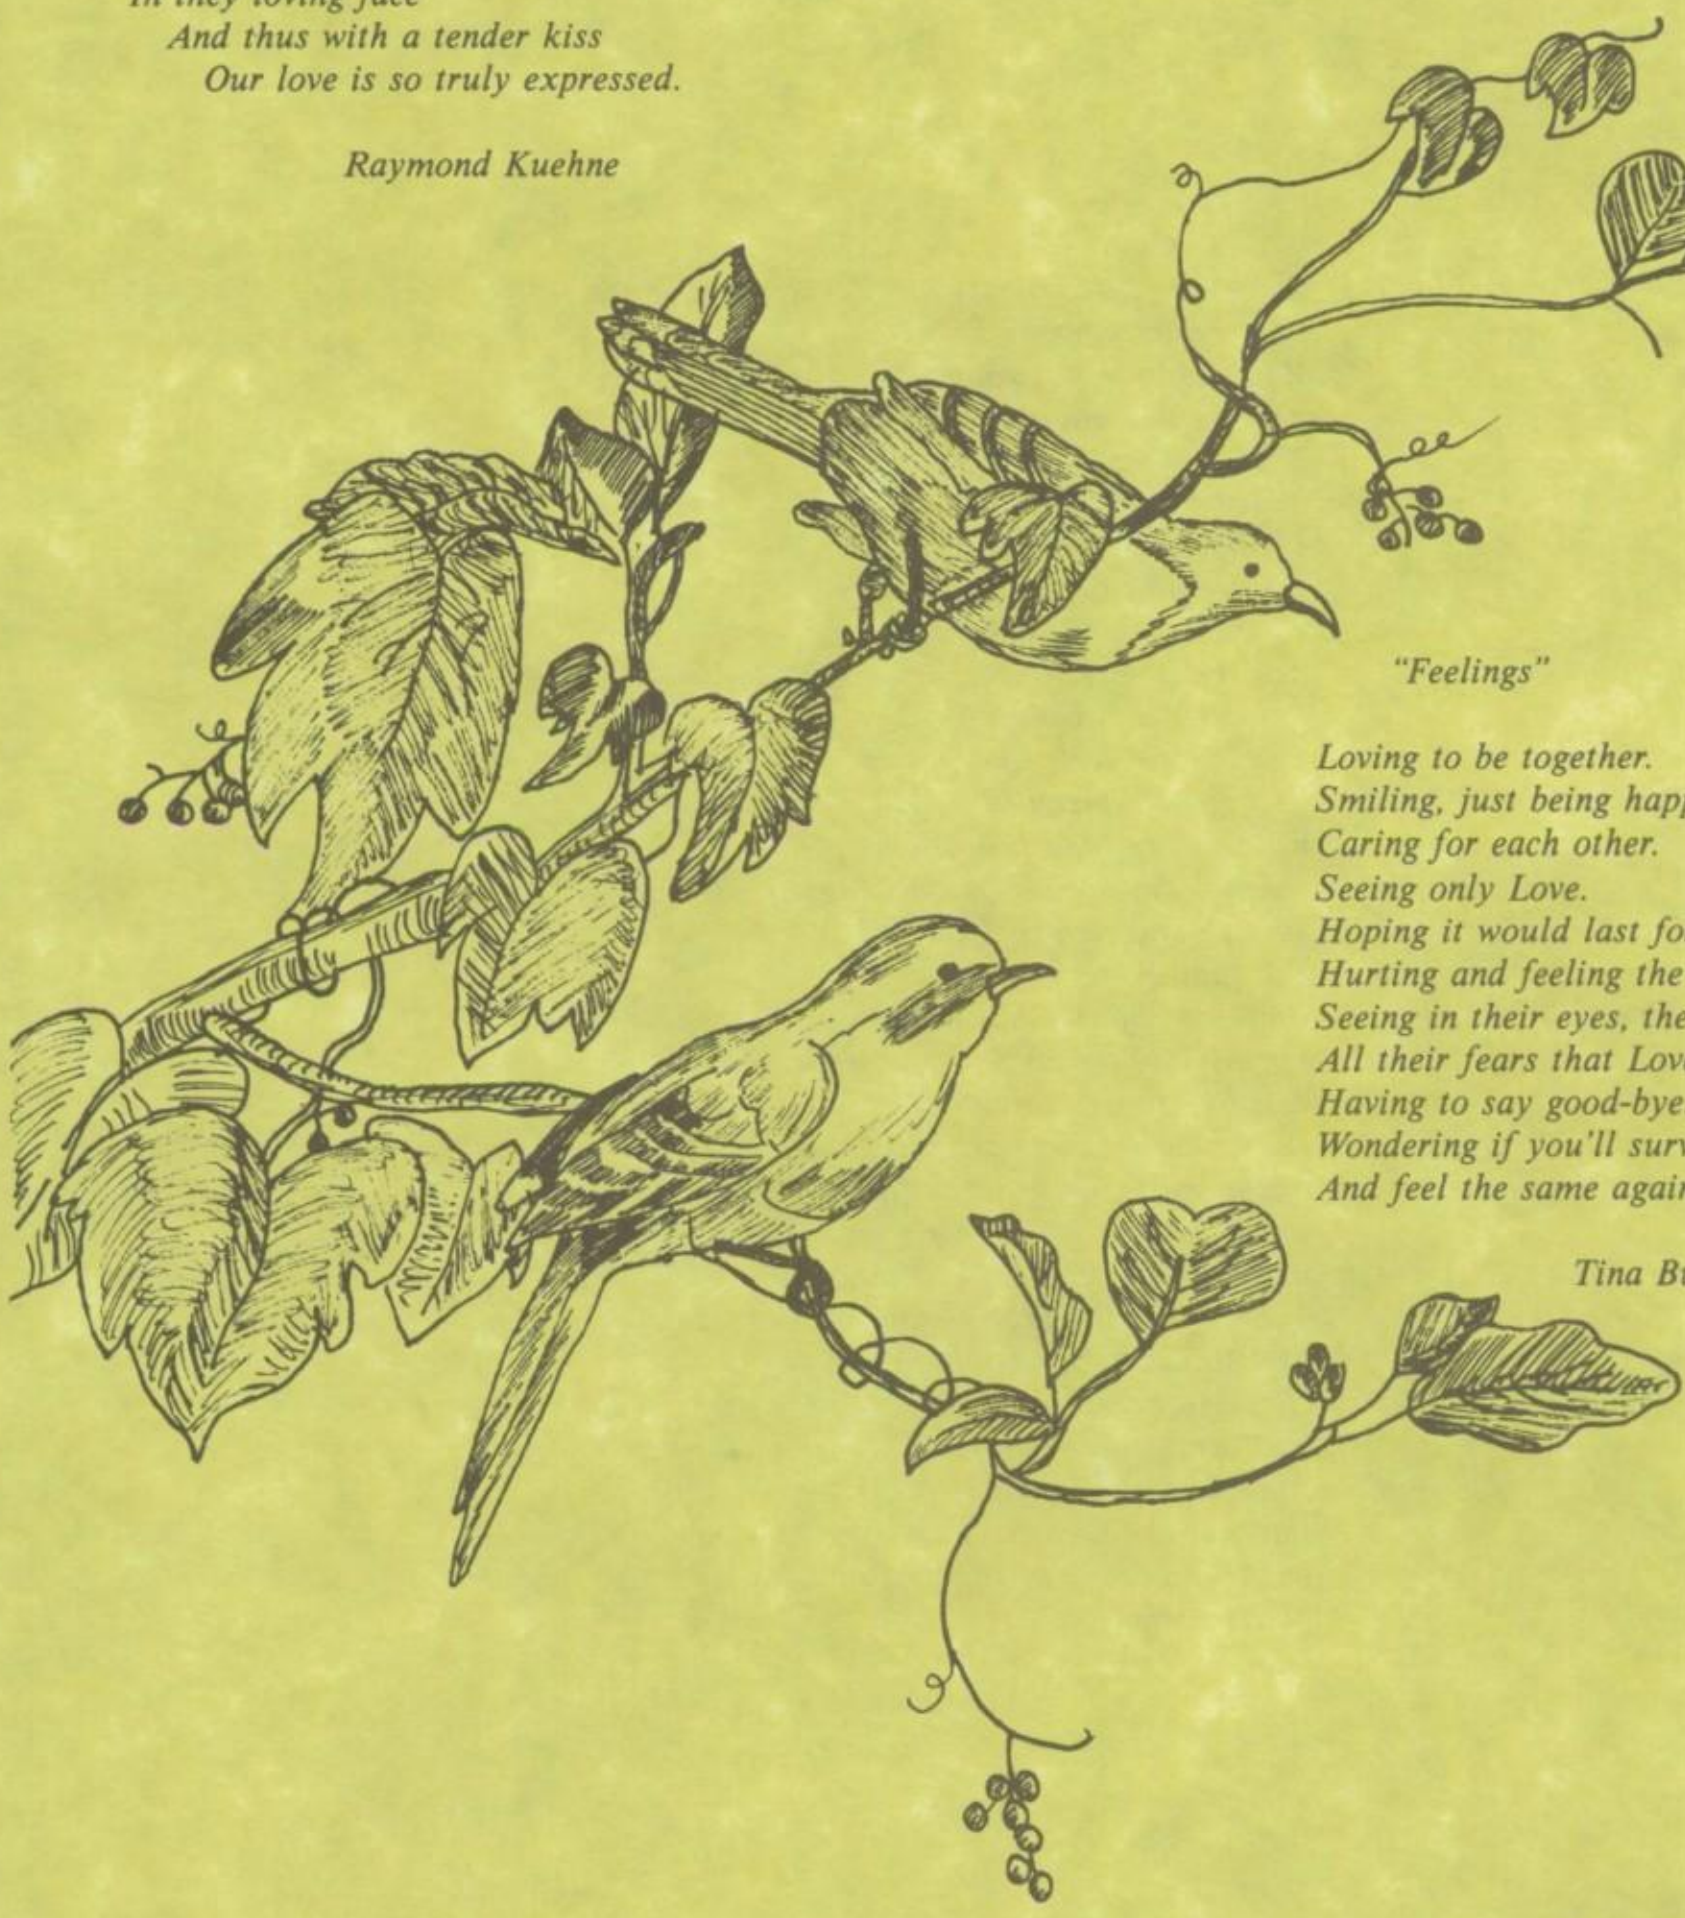
Angela DiAnna



"Loving Embrace"

In your loving embrace
I feel the great tenderness
That is so warmly expressed
In they loving face
And thus with a tender kiss
Our love is so truly expressed.

Raymond Kuehne



"Feelings"

Loving to be together.
Smiling, just being happy.
Caring for each other.
Seeing only Love.
Hoping it would last forever.
Hurting and feeling the pain.
Seeing in their eyes, the tears and
All their fears that Love has left behind.
Having to say good-bye.
Wondering if you'll survive,
And feel the same again.

Tina Burnett

Memories

Sometime I dream
of the days gone by,
When Love was a game
and the fun would not die.
The trees were all green,
and the sky was real blue
I would stare in your eyes,
you would say, "I Love You" . . .
Those days are far gone now and the trees have all died,
up above it is cloudy,
down below feels like sky.
The girl I remember
was innocent and full of class,
she was sweet and white as sugar,
smooth and clear as glass.
But that girl is gone now
time has changed her ways, for my love means nothing to her just like those rainy days.
All I have left now are memories of the good times that we had,
then I see her with other guys and the memories all become sad.
I think that life is so unfair
as I stare in the moonlight and cry,
"Some people don't deserve all the pain," I say so I always ask the Good Lord, "Then why?"
But one day she will realize that our Love was so true, but then I won't be there to say . . .
"I Love you, too."

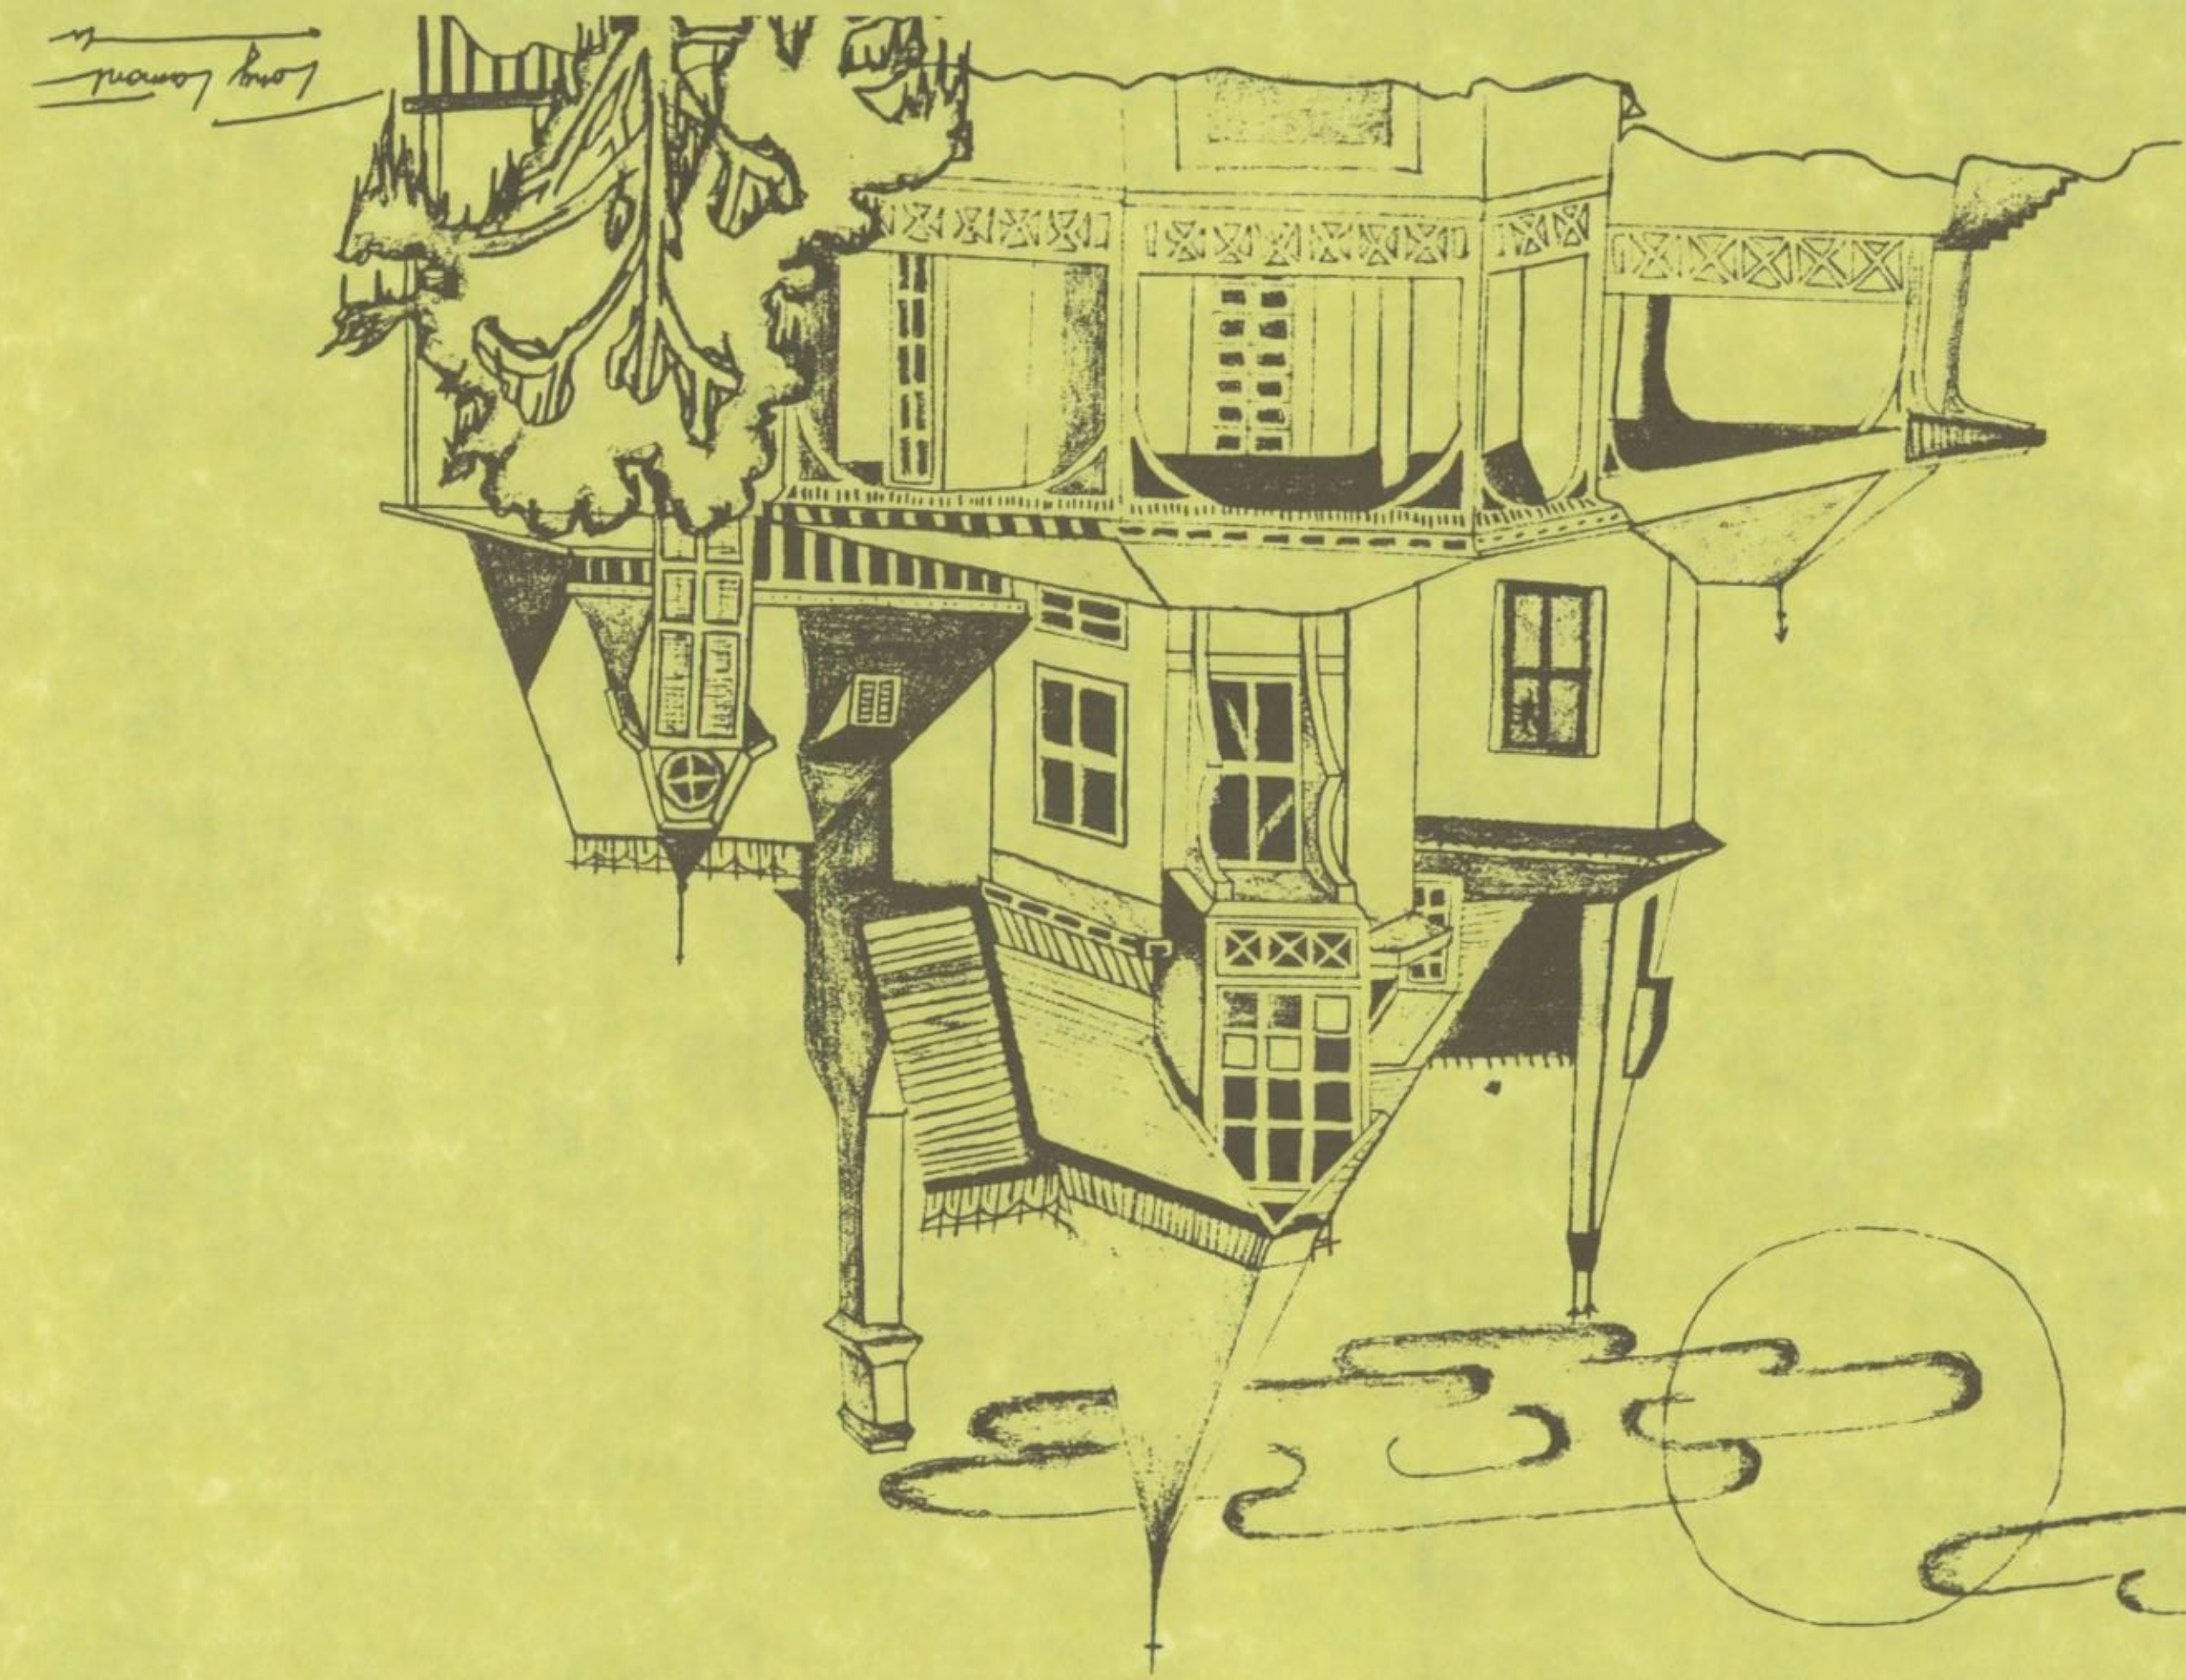
Danny Maltese



"Andrea"

She's helped me smile when I thought I would die.
She knows when to hug me and just let me cry.
She shares in my joys and guides me along.
When I am weak she helps me be strong.
In life it is rare and hard to find
A friend so close and endlessly kind.
It's like the Lord above decreed
She should be there in my time of need.
I could never repay all she has done,
To make my life a happy one.
I write these lines to let her know
Of the feelings I sometimes neglect to show.
And if time should ever take us apart,
She'll always be my best friend at heart.

Jenine Rampino

"How Do You Feel"

Each night I sit and think of you,
And all the things we used to do.
I think of your eyes, your smiling face,
Our times alone, your warm embrace.
But then my dreams cease to be,
And the cold hard truth is all I can see.
You walked out that night for reasons unknown.
I was left in the dark so hurt and alone.
Maybe you felt I was laughing at you,
If only you'd known it was the last thing I'd do.

Jenine Rampino

"The Two of Us"

Today we'll leave and be on our own,
We'll have to run, and always be unknown.
I'll hold you forever, like an only child
Remembering when we first met and suddenly smiled.
To be like us is a very special thing,
We take a day at a time, not knowing what tomorrow brings.
The sun might not shine, your smile may not show
The snow might pile up, the wind may not blow,
But even tomorrow is a new day, to start a new life,
Even though it might be painful, like the cut from a knife.
Remember what you said, before we ran away,
We'd never be apart and you would always stay.
If we're ever alone, and without each other,
I would be like a child who just lost its mother.

Donna Colbert

"Endless Grace"

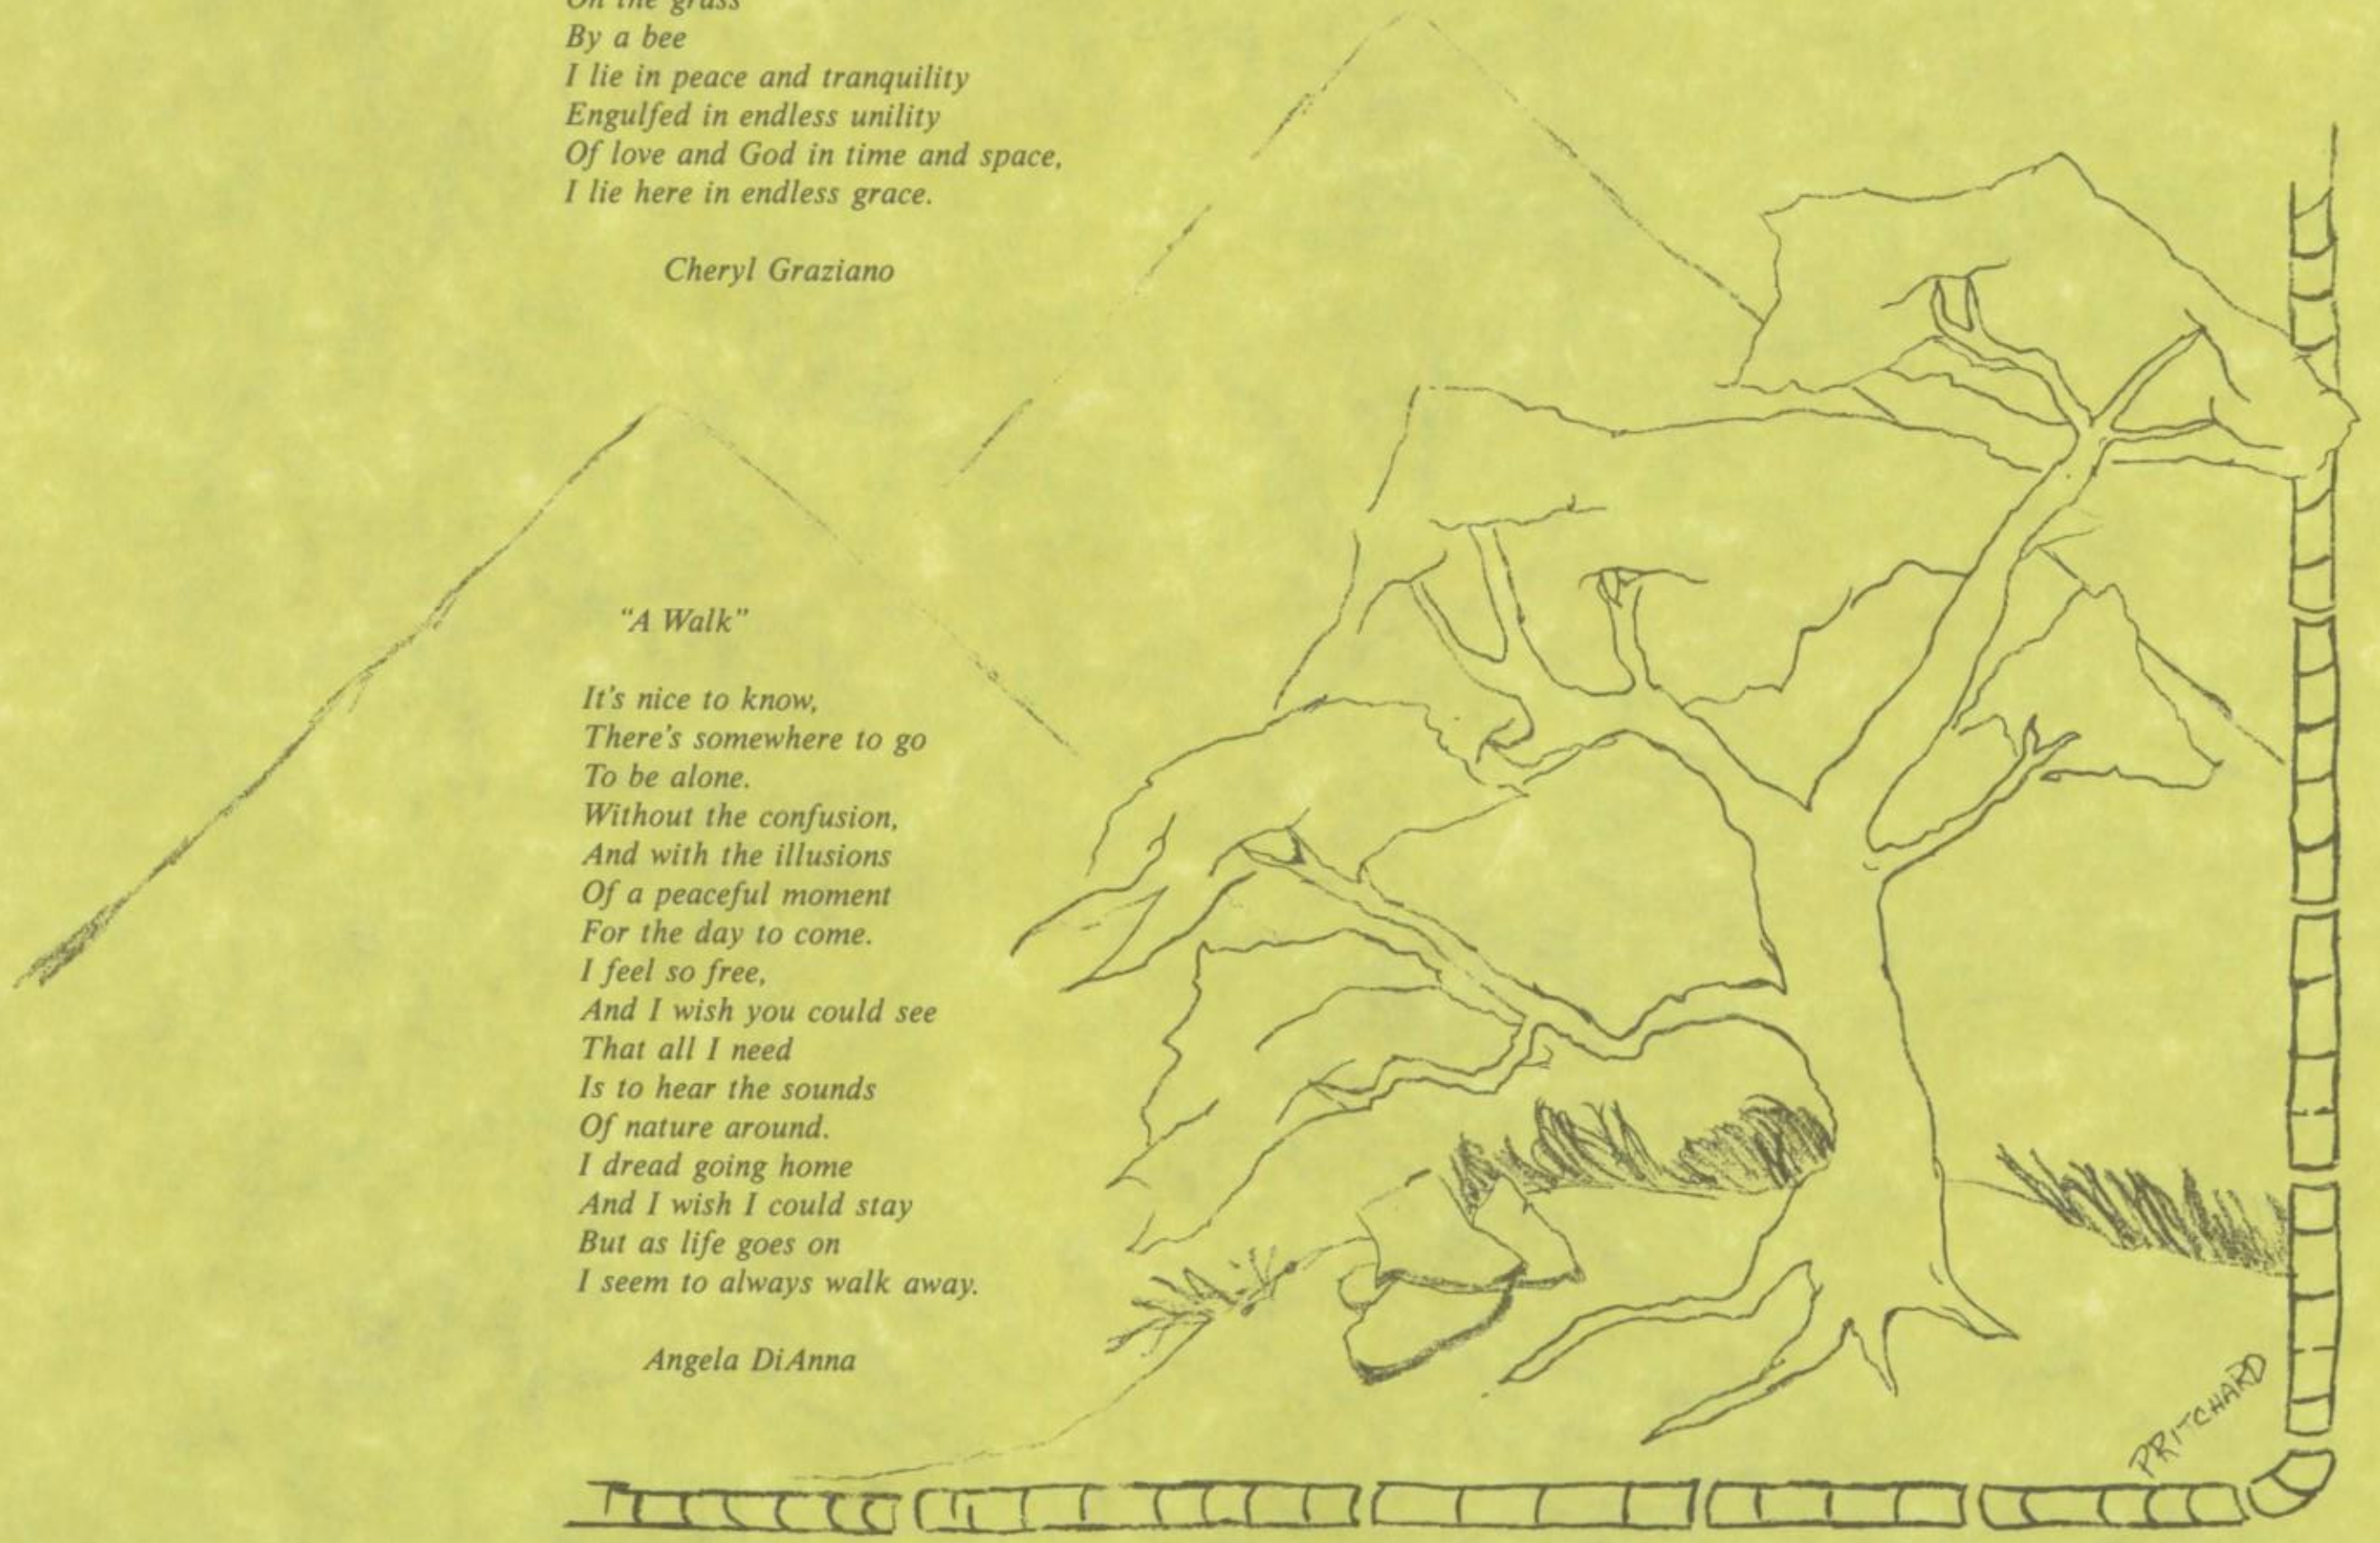
Above the sea
Below the sky
I see a place
Where I may lie,
On the grass
By a bee
I lie in peace and tranquility
Engulfed in endless unility
Of love and God in time and space,
I lie here in endless grace.

Cheryl Graziano

"A Walk"

It's nice to know,
There's somewhere to go
To be alone.
Without the confusion,
And with the illusions
Of a peaceful moment
For the day to come.
I feel so free,
And I wish you could see
That all I need
Is to hear the sounds
Of nature around.
I dread going home
And I wish I could stay
But as life goes on
I seem to always walk away.

Angela DiAnna



What Happened?

What happened to those days of long ago?
When you used to bounce me on your knee;
When you would tickle me till I could hardly breathe;
Could I have outgrown them?
Maybe.

What happened to those times of long ago?
When you would buy me a balloon after shopping;
When you told me bedside stories of kings and queens;
Could I have outgrown them?
Maybe.

What happened to those days of long ago?
They're gone now, can't you tell?
Just memories; tattered, worn, and loved;
Could I have outgrown them?
Maybe.

Mauren Cox

"You're Not Here"

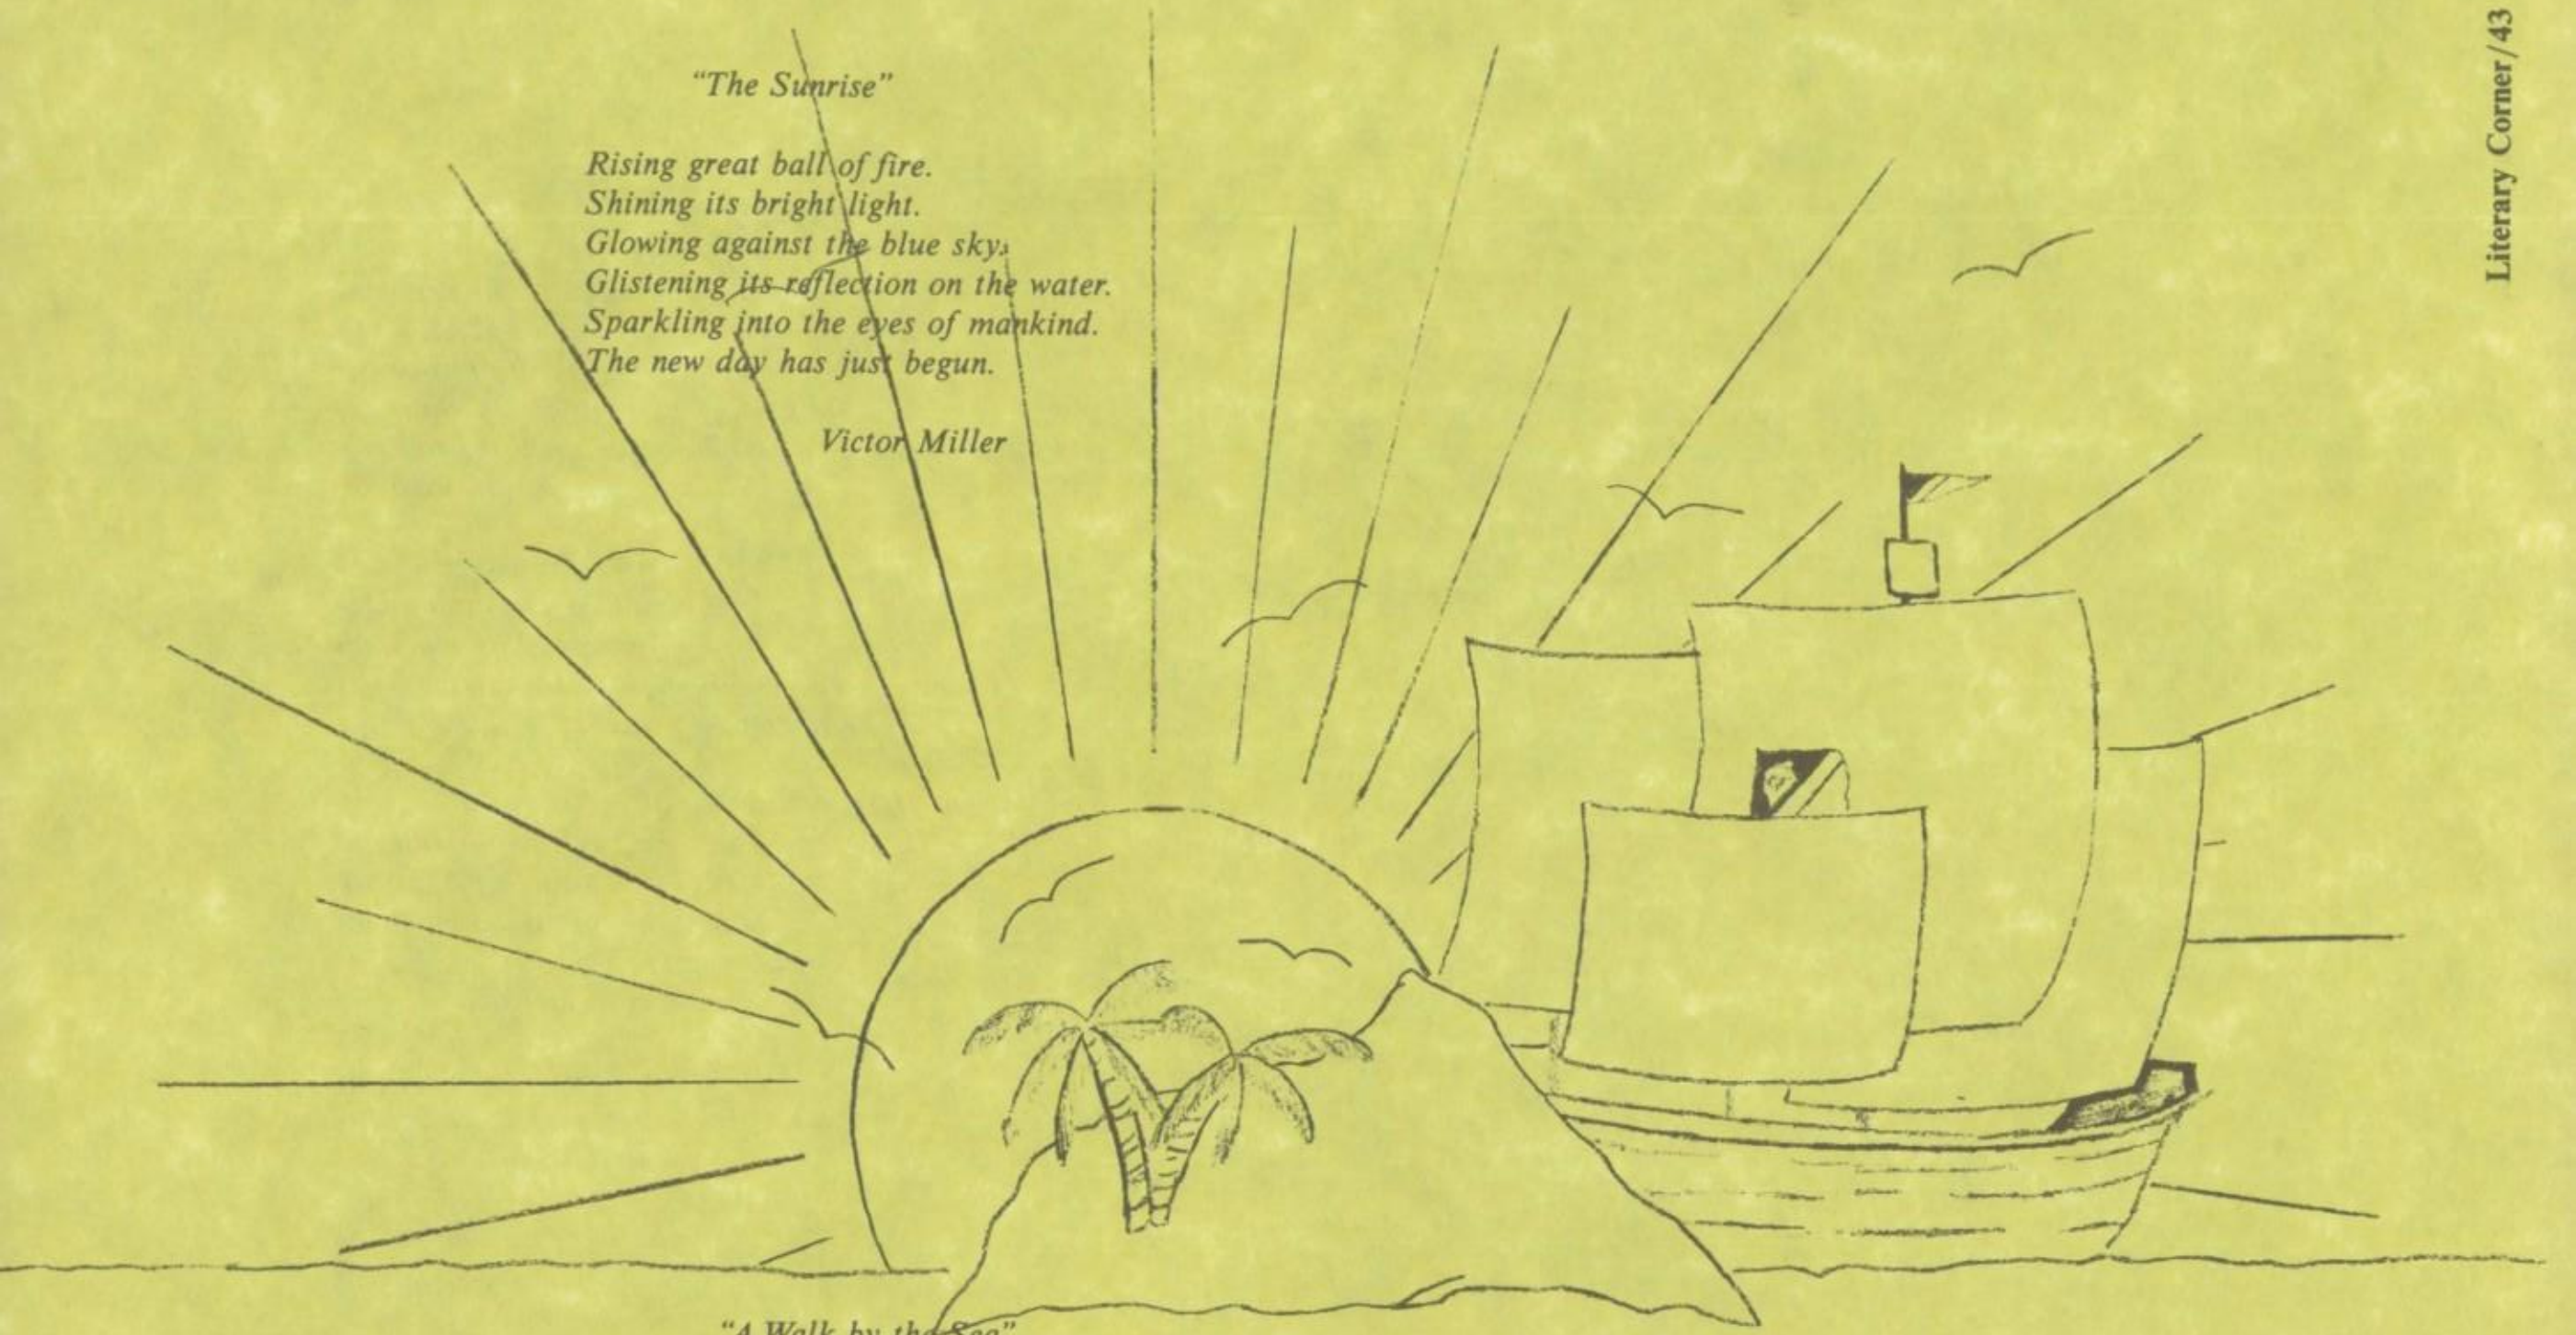
Well summer has come again
And I can't help to feel.
The memories of yesterday gone,
But the dreams of tomorrow real.
It's been a year now
Since I have seen you,
But I remember our time together,
No matter what I do.
Now is the time
To think again for fun,
And to remember
All the things we've done.
We could have those times again,
The ones that were so dear
The only barrier is
I'm not there and you're not here.

Robert Smith

"The Sunrise"

Rising great ball of fire.
Shining its bright light.
Glowing against the blue sky.
Glistening its reflection on the water.
Sparkling into the eyes of mankind.
The new day has just begun.

Victor Miller



"A Walk by the Sea"

Along the shore-line far out to sea,
I see a wave crawling closer to me,
It crashes down with all its might,
And silently rolls in.

The sun is low in the sky,
And the water gives off its golden gleam,
It's a kind of magic
I surely have never seen.

As I splash the water over my feet,
And feel the warmth within,
I feel a sense of happiness
Standing by the sea

Brenda Kwateng

"Burning the Walls"

Tall and small,
In the hall,
What are they?
They're called Walls.

Limiting your imagination
As to what's behind,
Expanding your imagination,
As to what could be behind.

Like death, there may be
Wonders beyond all
But for now, I guess we'll
Never know;
Until we burn down the walls.

Imagination, limited by walls,
Multiplied by two, when they fall!
Burning walls? A catastrophe?
Don't worry — We'll find out in WWIII!

Walls burnt — Plentiful Imagination!
Will there be anyone left to explore these new destinations?
A solution? I don't know.
Let's find one before we go.

So, on we go into the fire —
The nuclear arms raise higher and higher.
Inflation, segregation, and population
All raise to form a terrible nation.
All through time man continues to fight;
And still we go on into the night.

Friends

Fly high,

"Yesterday"

Somehow yesterday has gone;
And can not be retraced,
But the memories which are so fond,
Can never be erased.

I cannot say where those days went,
But to me those days were kind,
And each yesterday that was spent,
Is like a page from the book of time.

The future lies in tomorrow,
The present is today,
But we cannot recapture what
We have borrowed, which belongs to yesterday!

Someone New

When someone new comes along
It seems like nothing could ever go wrong
If he loves you he will let it show
If he doesn't he will let you go
He's another one to try
But he could also make you cry
He wants you to be in your jollies
Not like little girls' dollies
When he wants to be free
You have to agree
He doesn't want to hurt you
Because you are someone new
He has such a gentle touch
That's one of the reasons you love him so much
He is not shy
But he could be a spy
So watch what you do
Because he is someone new.

Denise Saginario

"Someone"

When someone dies, and goes to heaven,
People cry, and are thinking of them.
When you lose someone close to you,
You can't believe it and say, "It's not true."
If only there was time, but time isn't fair,
To say that you love them, and how much you care.
But when that someone is really gone,
You're going to tell yourself, "I can't go on."
Just remember, when you're crying,
How much you love them, and keep on trying.
Before it's too late, and your someone leaves you,
Tell them you love them, and then, that "It's true."

Donna Colbert

"History in a Hundred Words"

History in a hundred words.
It pulls you from and takes you toward
A vast yet endless plain
That one should never try to explain
It shows you places far beyond
And shows you people going to and from
So believe it or not it can be done
History in a hundred words

So shut your mouth, zip your lip
And prepare to take an infinite trip
To a place indescribable, ever so vast
That people have affectionately entitled the Past
But remember this information that I bear
Entitled "History in a Hundred Words."
(And not a word to spare.)

My Feelings on Love

When I see the sun is setting and the world is all in peace,
I can see my heart is letting all its dreams of love release.

Nature expresses feelings better
Than anyone ever can,
But I'm writing you this letter to show that I can.

Love is tender, love is true
love is happy, love is blue,
Nothing makes me happier than when I'm with you.

So you see my dear
my love for you is very, very true,
And never, ever must you fear
for I will always be in love with you.

Lisa Olmo

"A Friend"

Oh little sister and little brother
We will always have each other,
No matter near or far.

Sometimes we're together;
Sometimes we're away,
But I know we'll be united
Again some other day,
No matter where we are.

A sister or a brother is just like a friend
That will help you from beginning to end;
When in trouble or when in need,
Oh yes, a brother or a sister is a friend indeed.

My little sister, my little brother
We will always love each other,
No matter near or far.

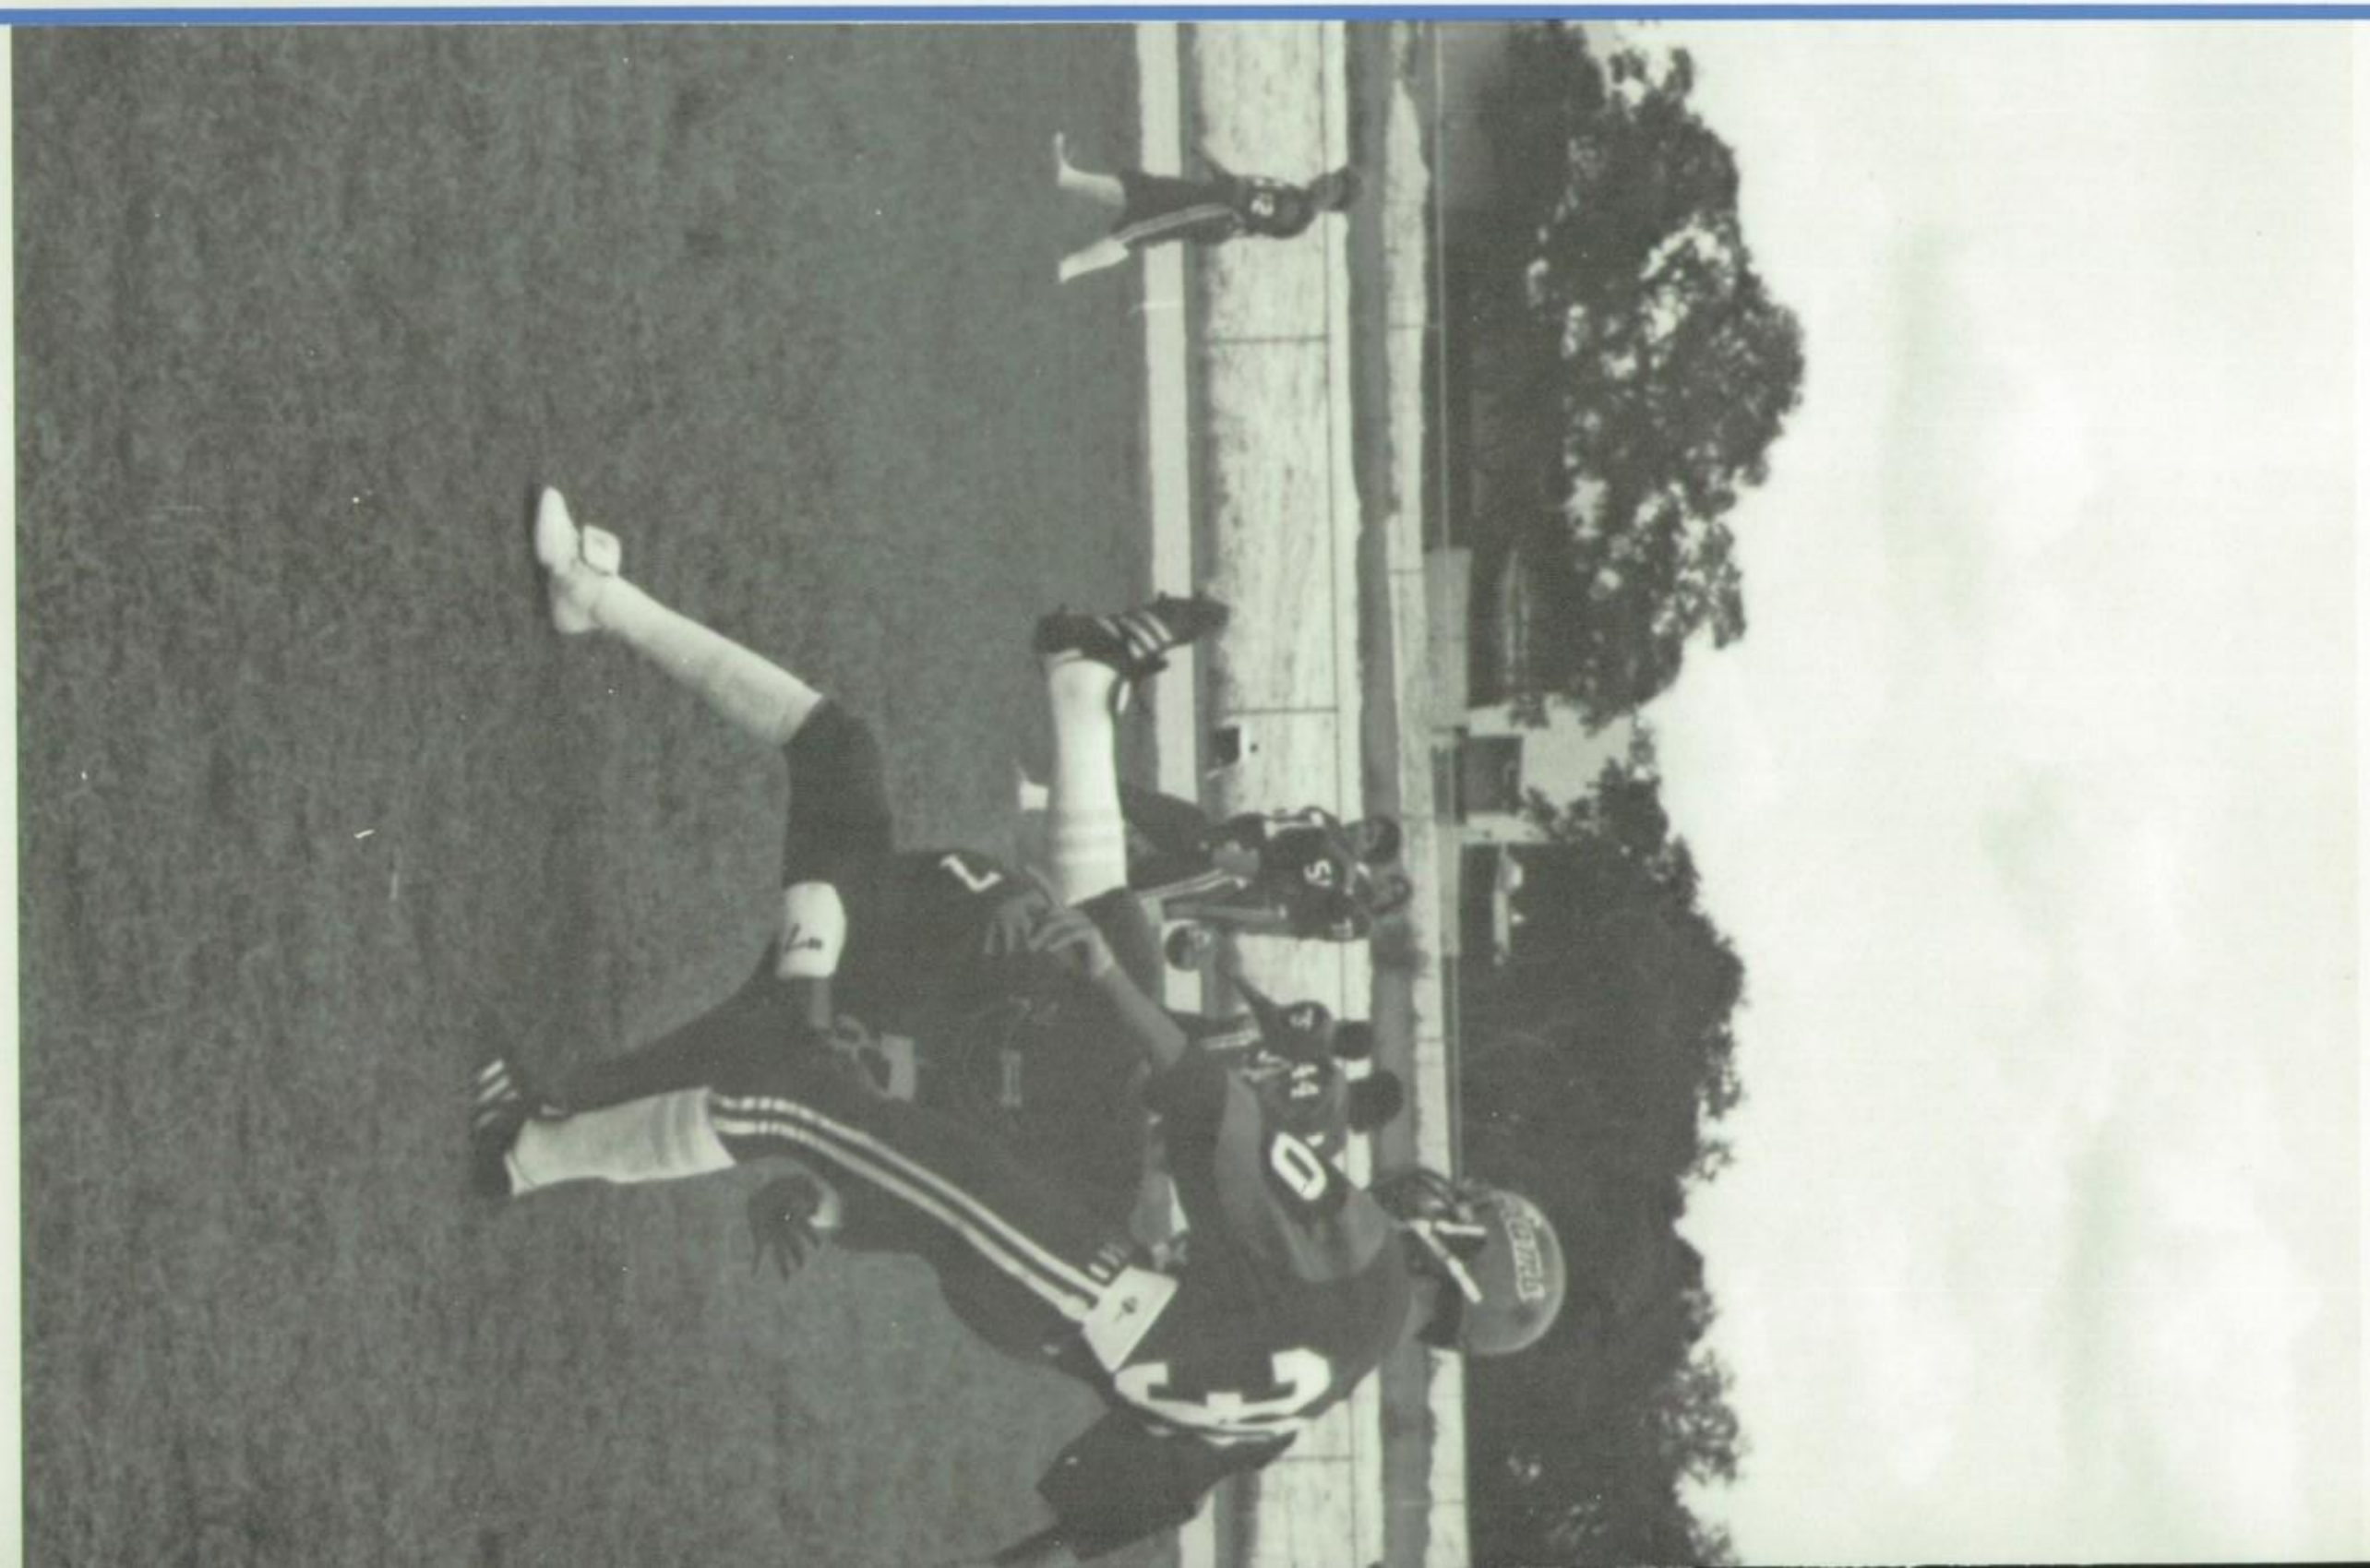
SPORTS



What our minds can conceive and believe, our bodies can achieve! This has definitely been proven by Ridgewood. This year we have added to our roster two new teams (Cross-Country and Wrestling). We have increased the amount of teams by competing at the junior high level in some sports, as well as the high school junior varsity level in some sports. Our last junior high teams were in the areas of cheerleading, football, volleyball, basketball, and track. Basketball and football also competed at a high school junior varsity level with all other teams playing a varsity schedule. The Rams are "MOVING ON UP!"

Known as the "Infamous Dirty Thirty," the Ridgewood Rams went undefeated this year with a record o 8-0. They were said to be the dirty thirty because afte games they could not take showers, for their locke rooms were not yet complete. As a quote from one o the players, Mike Champagne, "I hope we will go 10- next year, playing in a class two district, but if w don't, it's O.K. We will still be one big family, an sometimes that's all that really counts." The ram gave a lot, 142 points and took a little, 13 points Coach Riser states, "There's only one word that de scribes them this year and that's T-E-A-M!" Way t go! Rams are #1!

On Your Mark . . .

Get Set . . .

This year we began competing in a new sport . . . Cross Country. The team beat several other varsity teams throughout the season. This was an outstanding performance for a group of freshmen and sophomores. One of our team's best runners, David Remisiewicz, gained many accomplishments this season. He won his first varsity race in a three team meet at Hudson and he also earned a spot on the All-Gulf Coast Conference team.

One of our new sports at Ridgewood this year is wrestling. Since this sport is not played in junior high school it may be unfamiliar to you. The wrestling match begins with the two wrestlers starting in a neutral position (above). When a wrestler has control of his opponent down on the mat a 2 point takedown is scored (upper right). If the defensive wrestler gains a neutral position and his opponent loses control a 1 point escape is scored. If the offensive wrestler loses control and the defensive wrestler gains control a 2 point reversal is scored. A nearfall (right) is scored when a wrestler gets his opponent into a pinning position and both shoulders are within four inches of the mat or when one shoulder is touching the mat and the other is at a 45 degree angle or less with the mat. The score for this position depends on how close the wrestlers shoulders are to the mat. A pin is when a wrestler has his opponents shoulders held to the mat for at least two seconds.

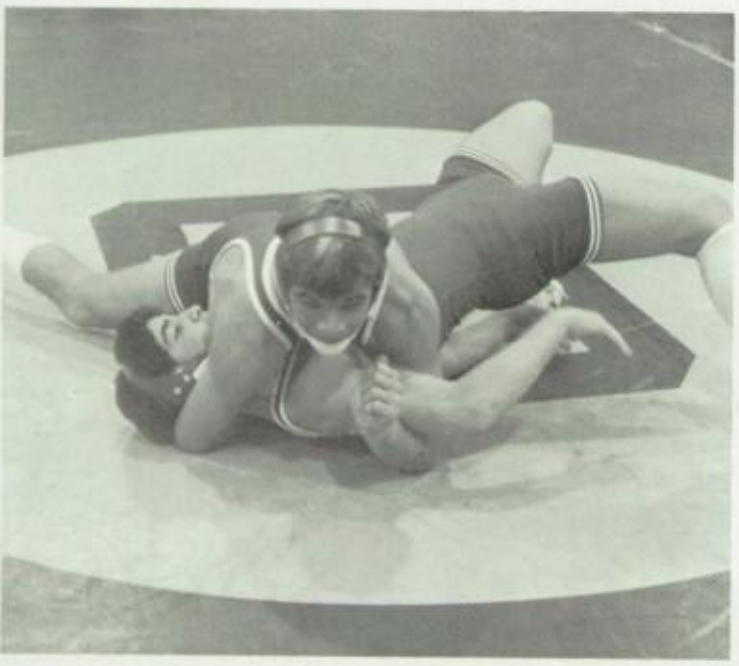
A Last Look At Sports

We would like to thank all the teachers, coaches and parents who helped with our teams this year. We would also like to thank the players that gave their best effort for the team. This truly shows we are #1.

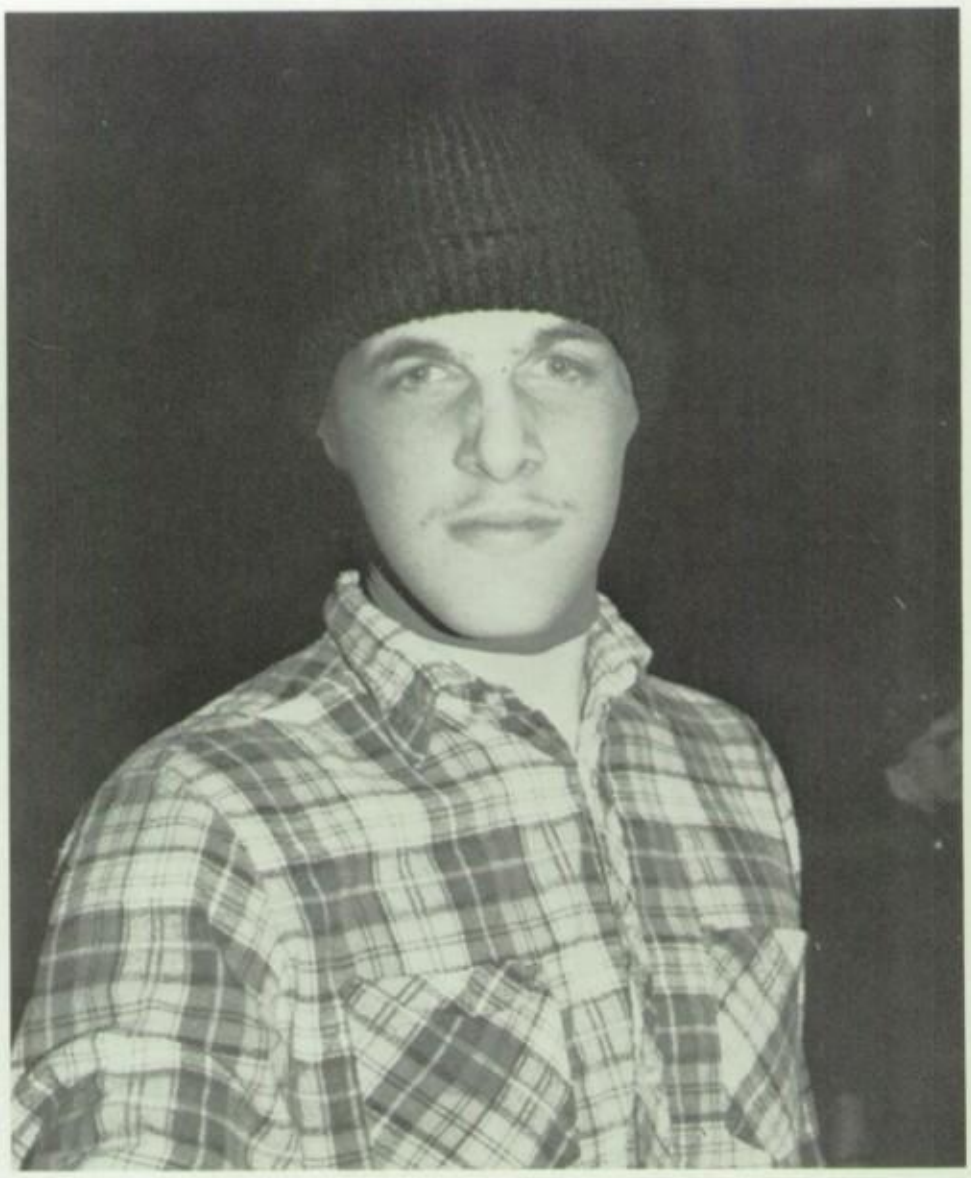


SPECIAL EVENTS

This year we are a high school. We have many new things being done to make this important change, new teachers, new courses, new equipment. We need a special section to record such important events. This section, as you may have already guessed, is special events. In this small portion of your yearbook you will see dances, contests and assorted news events. We, the yearbook staff, feel this is a very important section because we will look back upon these memories and remember them one by one. Don't forget, as the saying goes; these are the best years of our lives!

Let's Dance!

EVERY GIRL'S CRAZY 'BOUT A SHARP DRESSED MAN.

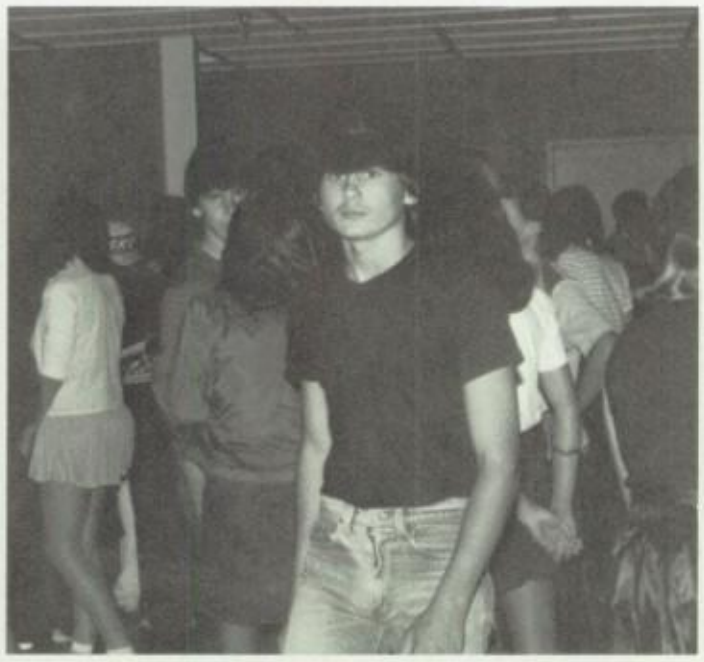


DO YOU REALLY WANT TO HURT ME?

SUCH A PYT!

GIRLS JUST WANNA HAVE FUN.

IT'S A THRILLER NIGHT.



PLAY ME SOME MOUNTAIN MUSIC.

THANK YOU FOR BEING A FRIEND.

TOTAL FREAKAZOID!

BEAT IT!

OPEN ARMS.

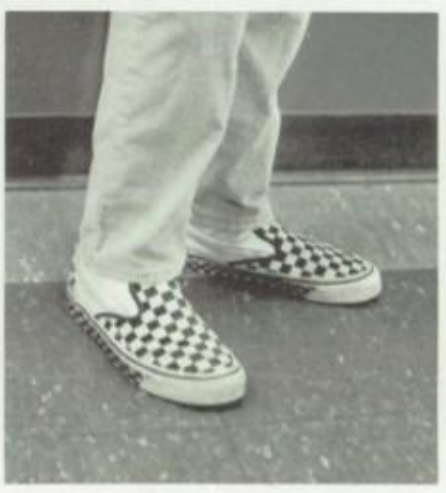
A Touch of Class

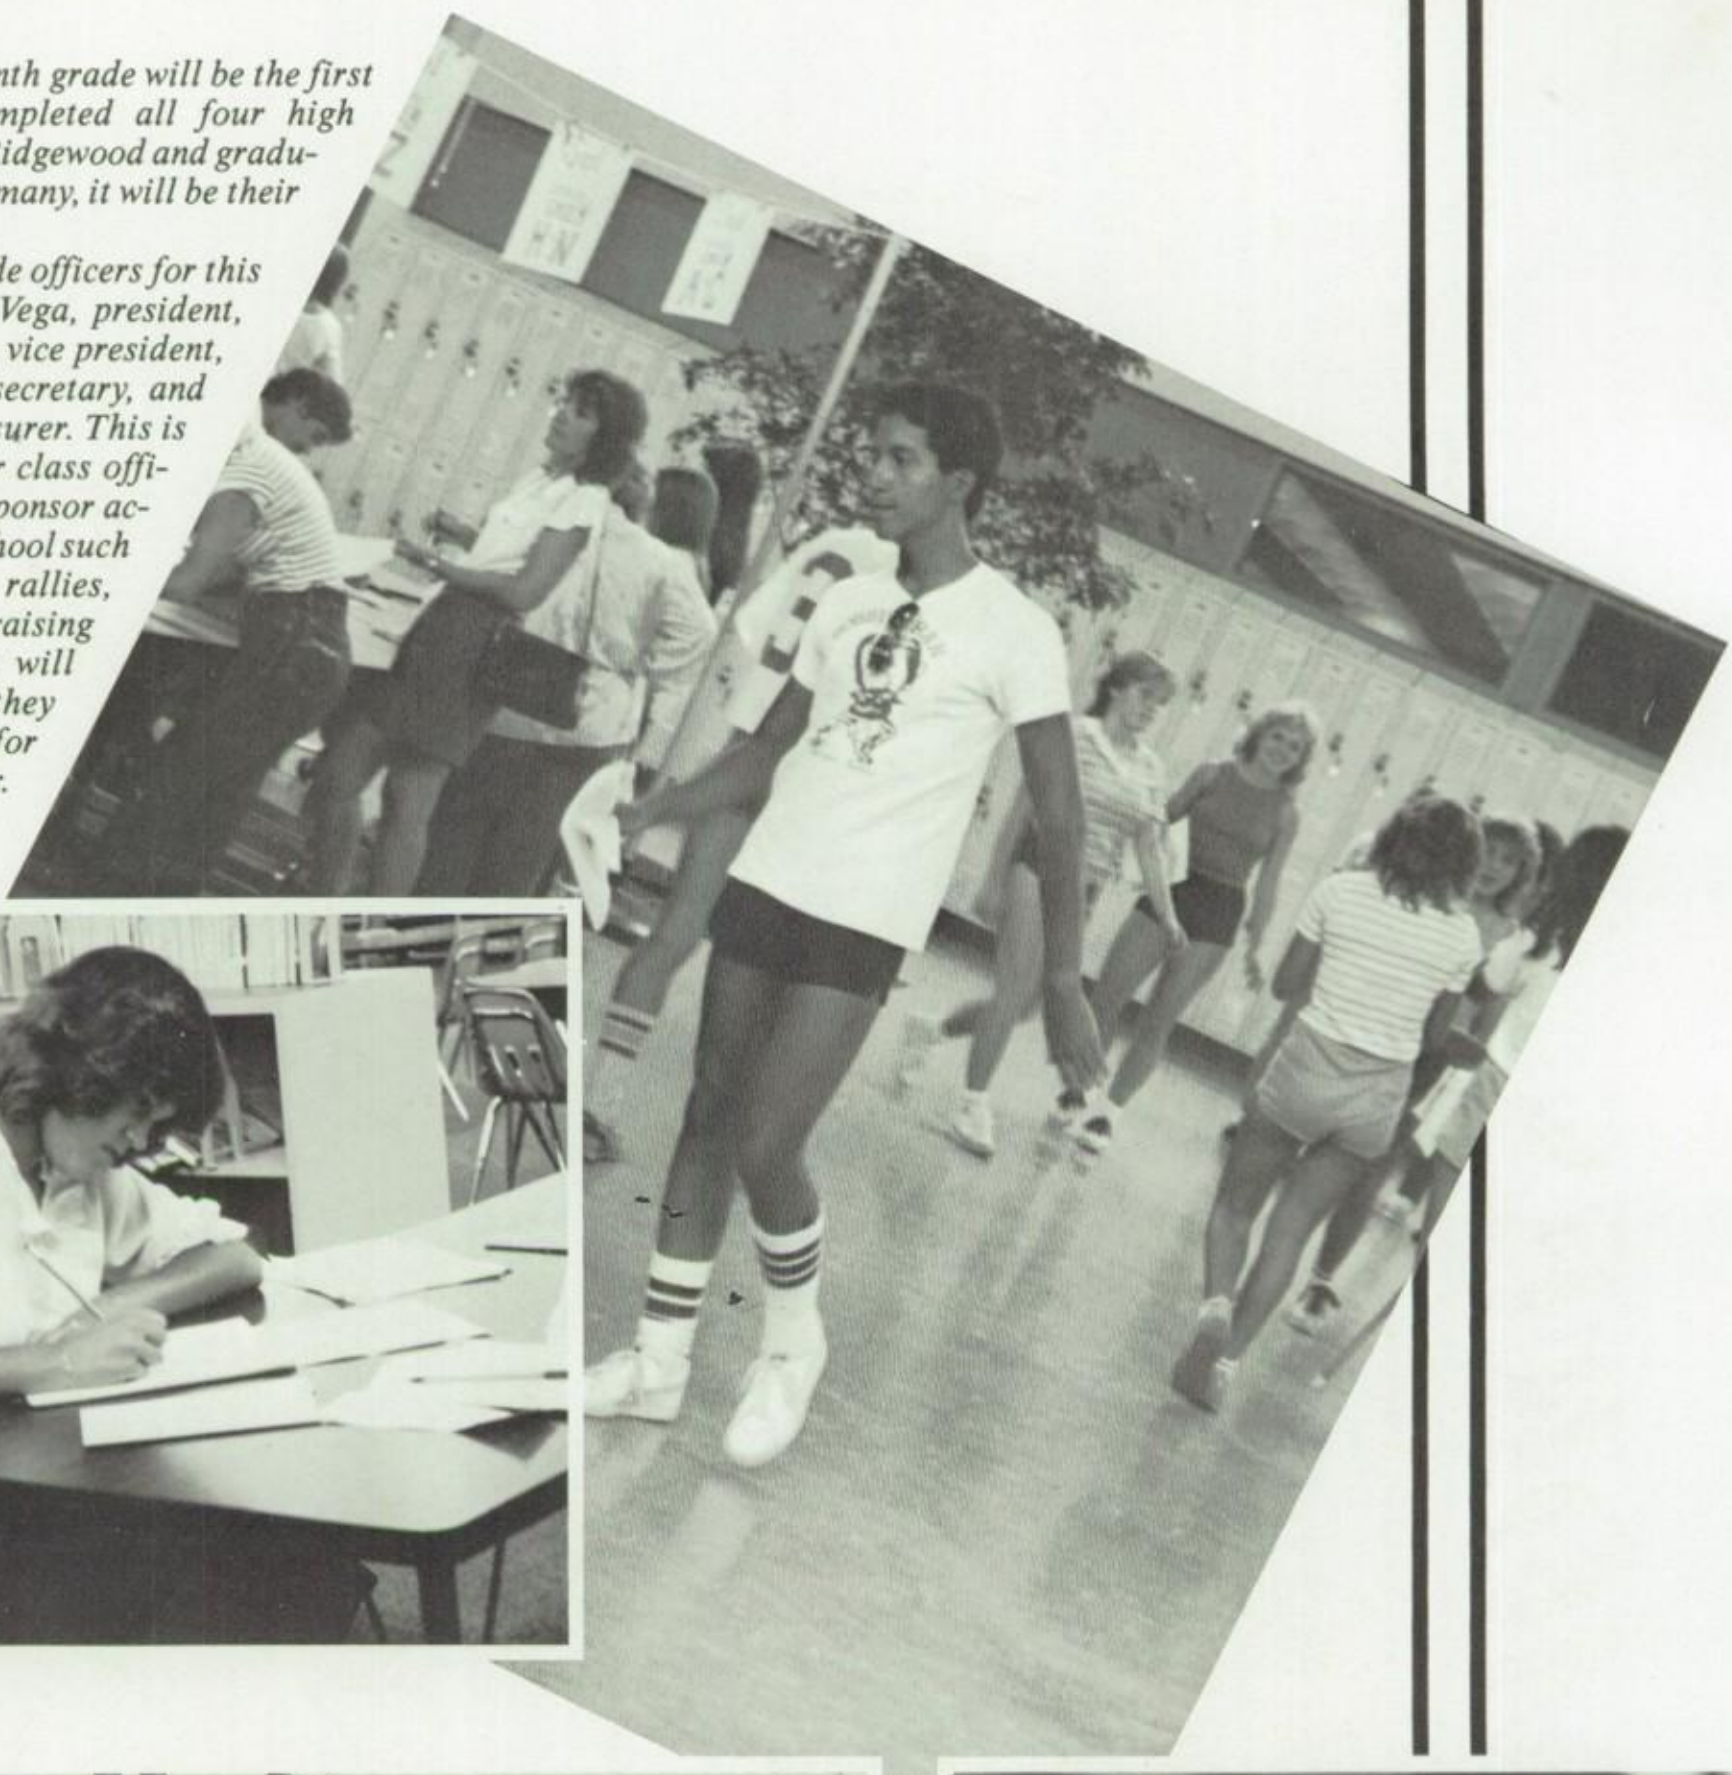
This page is dedicated to looks of the 80's. From miniskirts to Members Only, this has truly been a great year for fashions. Here is a sample of the most popular styles and trends of this time.



SOPHOMORES

This year's tenth grade will be the first to have completed all four high school years at Ridgewood and graduate in 1986. For many, it will be their sixth year here.

The tenth grade officers for this year are: Steve Vega, president, Mark Simmons, vice president, Susan Donato, secretary, and Rob Coury, treasurer. This is the first year for class officers. They will sponsor activities for the school such as dances, pep rallies, and other fund raising activities. They will use the money they raise to prepare for their senior year.



Sophomores Speak Out

What do you like best about Ridgewood becoming a high school?

"What I like about it is that I didn't have to move to a new school. I've finally gotten used to this school and I'm glad I don't have to leave it." — Theresa Hass

"I best like not having to leave as many friends as I would have by going to Hudson or Gulf."
— Kelly Klein

"Mrs. Vasile" — Debs McCombs

"I like it being the same school as before, not leaving friends and teachers." — John Byrne

"More classes to take and the sports they play."
— Marc Nadreau

"Ridgewood becoming the best high school in Florida."
— Glenn Adams

"What I like best is that all of our friends got to stay together, and we can make Ridgewood the best high school ever to hit the state of Florida."
— Darren Carreras

FRESHMEN

This year the ninth grade has almost four-hundred students. Since this is the first official Freshman class of Ridgewood High School, we will be expected to carry out more responsibilities than ever before. In order to graduate, the class of 1987 must earn at least twenty-four credits by the time our Senior Year rolls around. This may seem like a major setback, but because of our elected class officers; President Rick Wells, Vice-President EddieGarcia,Secretary Hedy Wenang, and Treasurer Theodore Koutsos, we've had an enjoyable year and we will all remember these experiences.

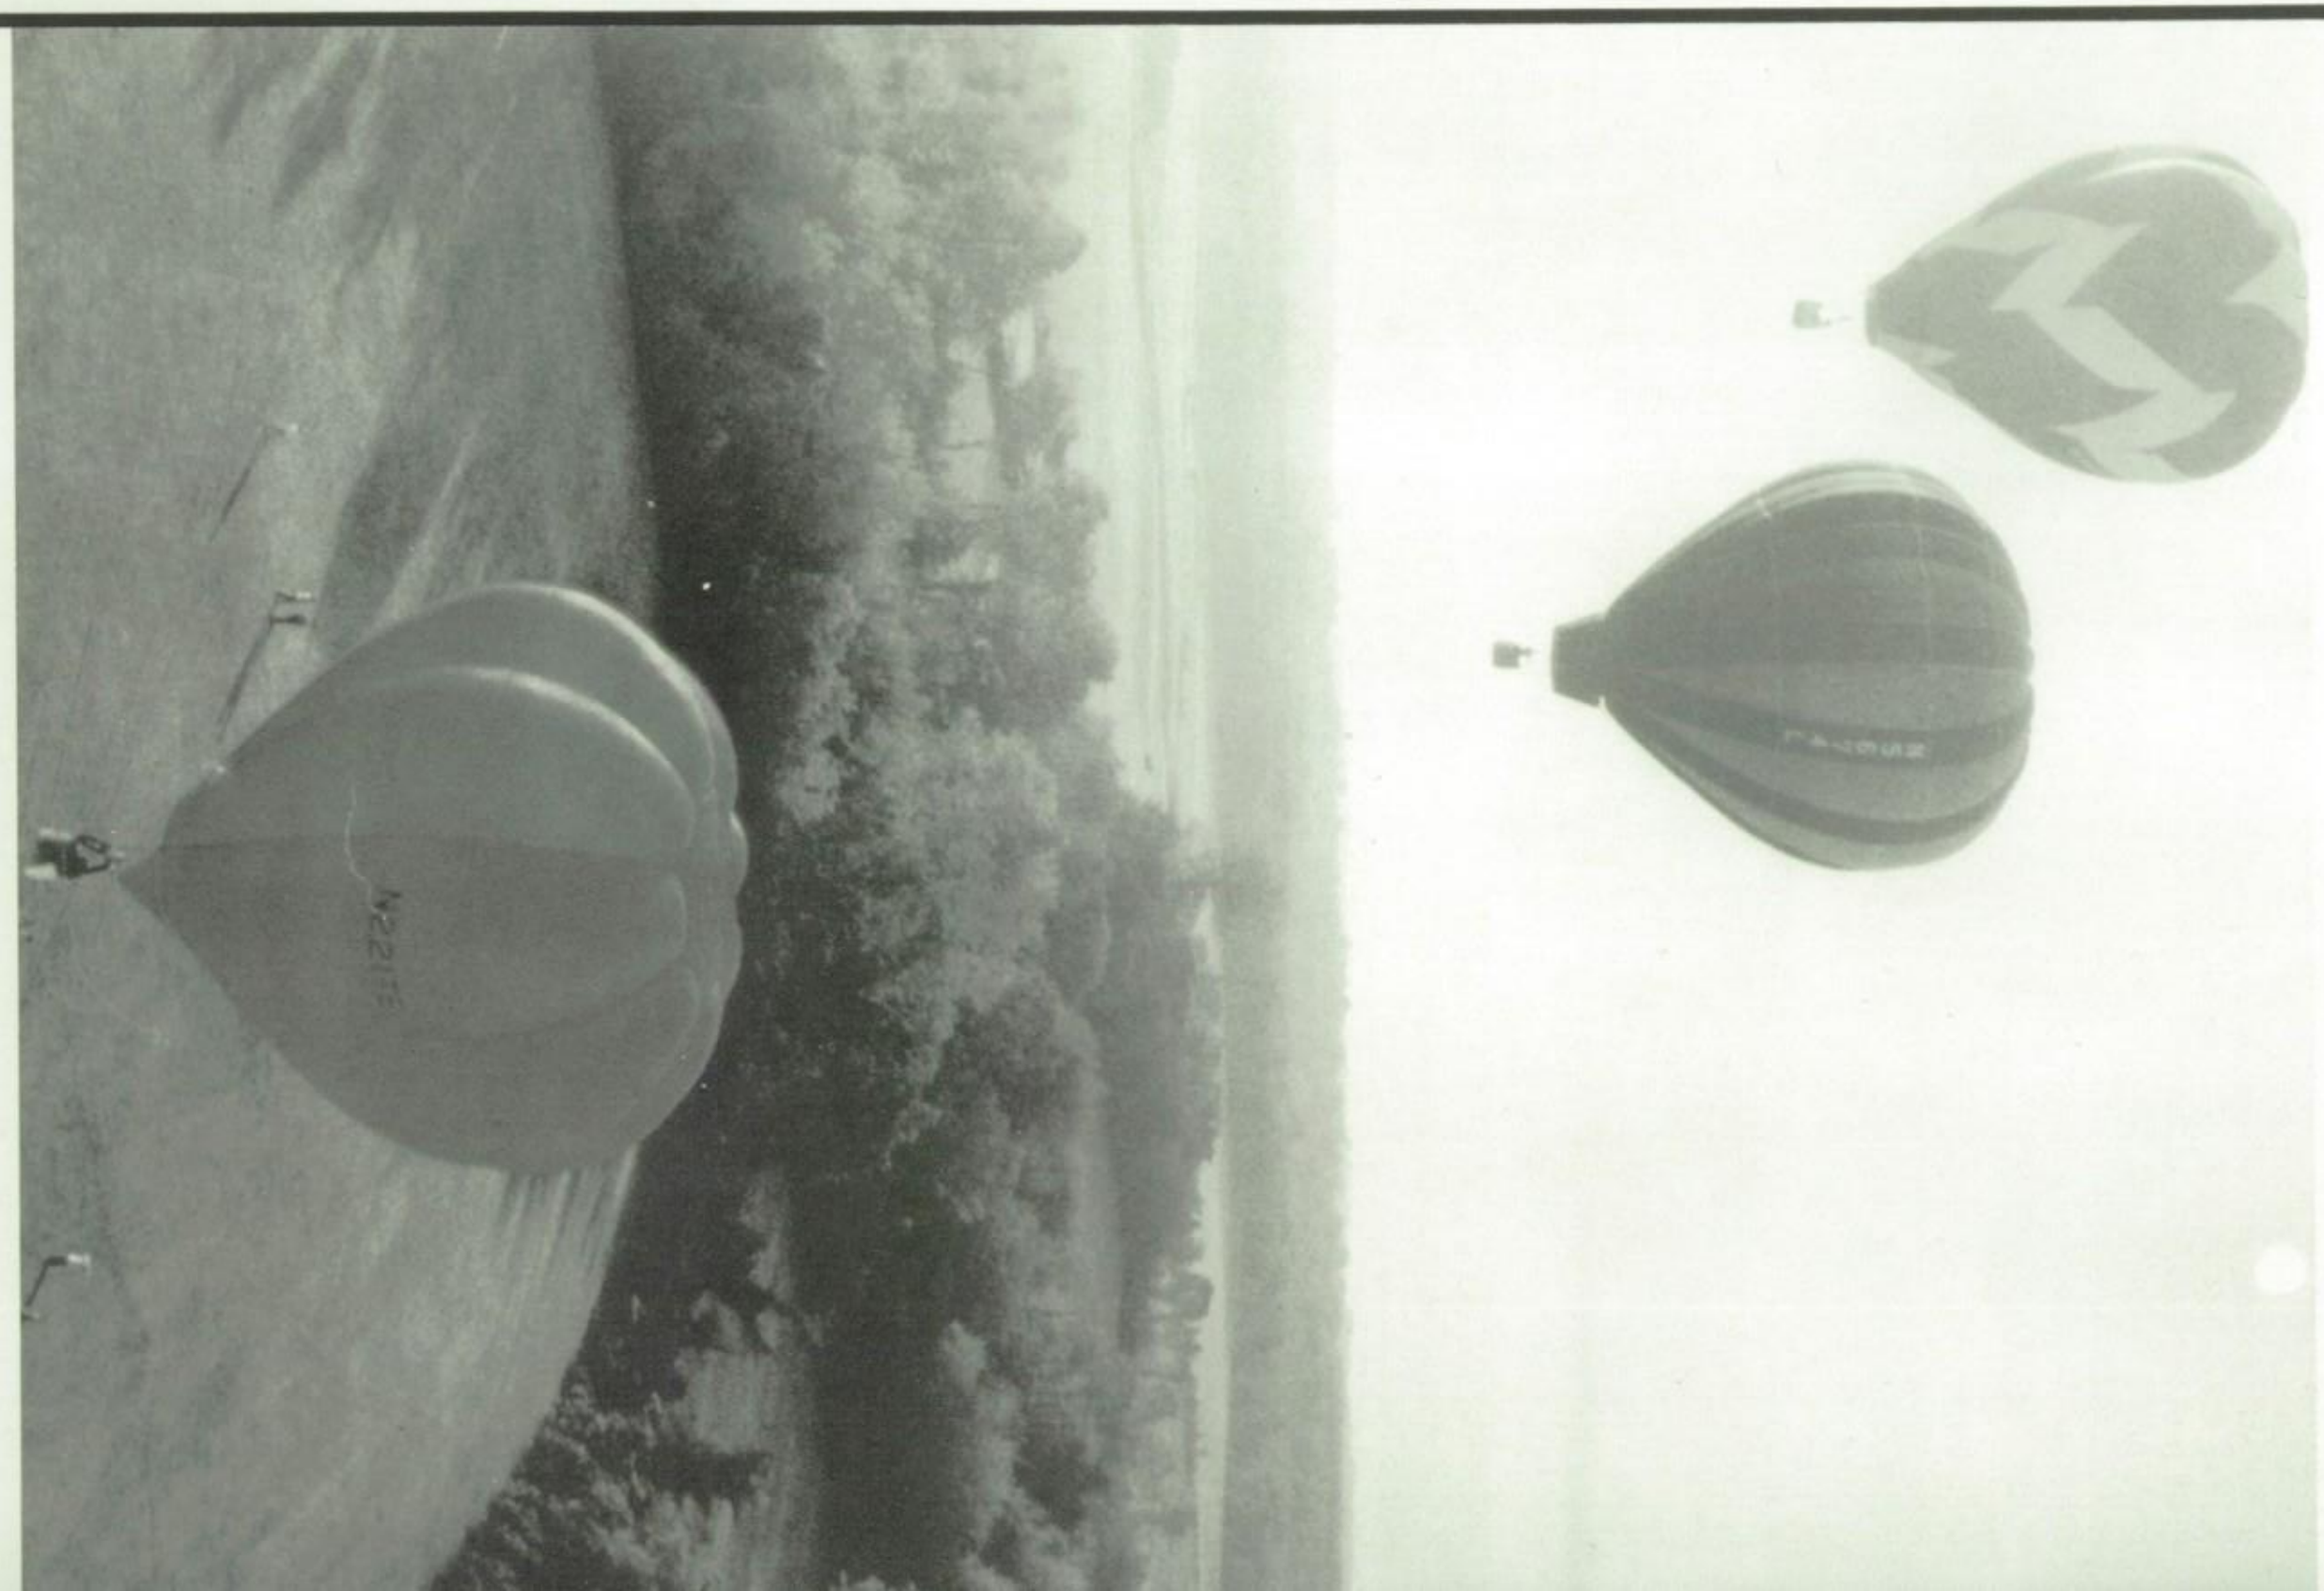
EIGHTH GRADE



This year Ridgewood High School had its first and last eighth grade. The last eighth grade class because next year we will be "MOVING ON UP" to ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades. Because of the new plan, this year's eighth graders will be going to Ridgewood High School a total of five years. We would like to say farewell to Ridgewood's last eighth grade year. We hope the eighth graders year with us has been good and that they will be returning next year as Ridgewood's second year of freshmen. We would also like to wish them good luck and success in the years ahead.

FACULTY

This year the faculty of Ridgewood has increased its number. Mr. Beets, Mr. Parzik, Mr. Drollinger, Ms. Githens, Ms. Ledman, Ms. Bavetta, Ms. Elkins, Ms. Vasile, and Ms. Weiskopf are some of the new faces the student body will see this school year. We, the students of Ridgewood, hope that they will soon feel at home and grow accustomed to the Ridgewood family as we all have. We are sure that this addition to the faculty will make Ridgewood High School an even better learning experience than it already is for Pasco County students.

COMMUNITY

House of Flowers
Corner of Trouble Creek and Madison
Phone 847-2390

The Rampage staff would like to thank all the businesses who patronize our yearbook. The Community section of our yearbook is very important because if it weren't for our advertisements, yearbooks would be more expensive. This year we sold twelve hundred and eighty-five dollars worth of ads. We gave cash awards to the top two salespeople on the Rampage staff. These two people were Brenda Darko and Hedy Wenang. They received ten and five percent of their total ad sales. The Rampage staff sold advertisements during their summer vacation and at the beginning of school.

BASED ON THE SENSATIONAL NBC TELEVISION SERIES!

It seemed, not too long ago, like this yearbook would never be finished, but somehow through all of our practical jokes, deadlines, and arguments, we did it!

The months of aggravation and anticipation have, with the help of many people, comprised themselves into years of memories.

We've shared the best and worst of times starting out as complete strangers and ending up the best of friends.

We hope you will enjoy this yearbook as much as we have enjoyed creating it.

well it's been another year going by and I sure did enjoy it. I love working for you and you know it. well as the years go by the times change and when the times change were still close as ever.

I hope you have a great summer. I know I will and maybe i'll call and we can do your car or go fishing or something. Don't catch to many fish with Bill save some for me to catch. well your a great guy and im sure glad we're become close so i know if all fails go see coach. thanks for being there. save a spot for me for football if I don't make volleyball.

Lots of love
